॥ अष्टकवर्गाध्यायः ॥

Adhyaya X.

Ashtakavarga.

The following eleven slokas from Grahadi (Hindu Astronomy) are inserted here, because they form an appropriate introduction to this Chapter.

यद्येषरे तत्तनुभुक्तु भवगो युक्तः सकं प्रकुरुतेऽधिभुक्तम् ।
भुक्तो यदैक्यक्षणभुक्तया फलस्य भेदादतोऽसंख्यफलप्रसूतिः ॥ १ ॥

Each planet moving from the place it occupied at the birth of a person admittedly produces its own peculiar effect varying with its progress through the 12 Rasis. Owing to the admitted variation in this effect, the astrologers say that it cannot be laid down as absolutely identical (even) in the case of persons born under the same star.

यस्य स्थितः शीतकरो नक्षत्रे जन्मभसंज्ञिते तद्गृहदर्शनं ।
तत्र तत्र चेष्टा तत्तत्फलस्य स्थितेः स्थितेः संकलनं समुद्दिष्टं ॥ २ ॥

Astrologers declare that to be the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of a person wherein the Moon was at the time of his birth. The several places in which the planets and the Lagna may be in all possible ways cannot consist of seven.

सप्तानां खचराणां तु भोक्तृत्वं सप्तधा स्थितम् ।
कथमष्टौ तेषां च स्थितयस्तत्तद्गृहप्राप्तिफलं कथं भवति ॥ ३ ॥

Every such person is declared to have eight लग्नs as the seats of the seven planets and the Lagna and it is with reference to these eight places that all the good and evil effects of a person's life due to the disposed or positioned states of the planets and the Lagna are calculated— a process which when completed, the अष्टकवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) result as it is called will become revealed.

The benefic positions have been enumerated; the text now to be considered are malefic. The twofold distinction also of benefic and malefic should be clearly set forth. The planets produce the effect of whichever of these two preponderate in the

*But according to Bhāskara, the 3rd, 4th, 6th, 9th, 11th and 12th places from Mars.

Ashtakavarga calculations made from the Rasi they occupy at the time of birth (while previous Slokas), in their own friendly or उच्च (Uchcha) places, the planets invariably advance the benefic effect revealed by Ashtakavarga. In their depressions, inimical or नीच (Neechaya) places, they generally fail to sustain whatever good effect may appear from the Ashtakavarga process.

जन्मलग्ने यदा यत्र स्थितस्तत्संख्यमेव हि।
* शेषाणि तु शुभं सर्वं चरलग्नाच्चतुर्थके शुभः ॥ (सत्याचार्यः)

From where the planets are at the time of birth, the benefic and malefic dots should be marked. A planet in its progress through a Rasi produces the effect of the malefic or benefic dots appearing therein (as ascertained from the Ashtakavarga).

* In other books वेध (Vedha) is used to denote what भिन्न (Bhinna) signifies here, i.e. benefic dots; the word भिन्न (Bhinna) in other books is employed in the sense of a malefic dot. This has to be kept in mind in making out quotations from other authors.

जन्मर्क्षतश्च लग्नं वा यद्राशिगतसंख्यया।
चरलग्नेन सहितं यत्फलं तत्तदुच्यते ॥ (त्रिविक्रमः)

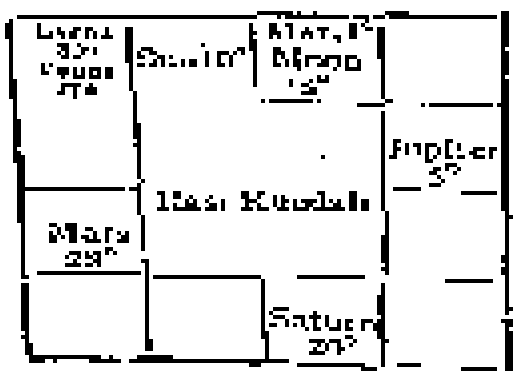

The several places detailed above are to be reckoned with respect to the Rasi (and not the Bhava) occupied by each of the 7 planets and the Lagna at the time of birth. These places should be understood as benefic and the rest malefic. As each Rasi happens to be occupied 8 times over by each of the 7 planets and the Lagna) for ascertaining the benefic as well as the malefic places, the maximum number of counting cannot in any case exceed 8. If after computation of a planet's result (Ashtakavarga) it is found that a particular Rasi has more counting on the benefic side than on the malefic, it means that the net result is beneficial to the native.

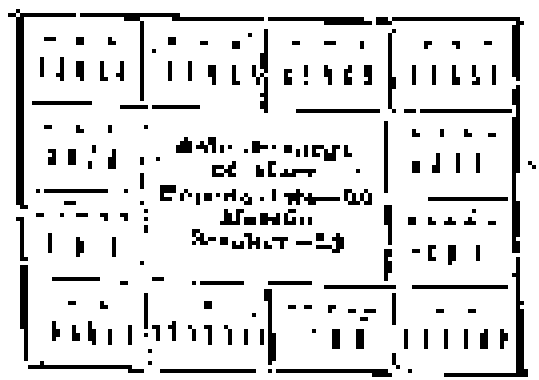

If we should denote a benefic place by a dot (·) and a malefic one by a vertical stroke (|), we can at a glance understand the difference between these two kinds of counting in any अष्टकवर्ग

(Ashtakavarga). The effect of a planet's arrival in any bhava (भाव) in its progress through the orbit (Gochara), is benefic, mixed or malefic according as the number of benefic dots in the Rasi representing the bhava in the Diagram (Bhinnashtakavarga) of the planet is greater than, equal to or less than 4. Dots short of the prescribed minimum indicate untoward effect produced by a planet defying any favourable position it may occupy; while dots in excess of the prescribed minimum betoken good; notwithstanding the unfavourable position of the planet concerned. For example, if all the 8 happen to be benefic it means that the result is fully beneficial. If only 7 of them are benefic and 1 malefic, the result is $\frac{7-1}{8}$ or $\frac{3}{4}$ the beneficial. If in any Rasi the number of benefic dots be 6 and that of malefic strokes be 2, the result is $\frac{6-2}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$ beneficial. If the number of benefic dots be 5, one should say that the effect will be $\frac{5-3}{8}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$th beneficial. If it should be 4, the result is $\frac{4-4}{8}$ or 0 ; that is neither good nor evil, but neutral and so on.

शुभैर्न यः शुभः स्थानं दृष्टं वा वासरैः सकैः ।
सकलं तद्विजानीयात् स्वभेषाद्यं शुभाशुभैः ॥ (बृहज्जातके)

"Take for example the horoscope mentioned in Brihat Jataka, Chapter VII, Shloka 6, and appended below:

In the sign Mesha, there are 3 benefic dots and 5 malefic strokes. The 3 benefic dots neutralise with 3 of the malefic strokes. The net result is 2 malefic strokes which means that Mars when passing through this sign will be productive of ¾ or ⅝th evil. Similarly for the other signs. There is one peculiarity to be noticed in the अष्टवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) of Mars. In sign Kumbha in the example there are 3 dots and only 4 strokes instead of 5. This is because the 10th place from the Moon has been declared to be ineffective, that is, neither benefic nor malefic—चन्द्रादशमेऽङ्के Chandradashame'nke—for the अष्टवर्ग (Ashtakavarga) of Mars. That place has, therefore not been taken for the calculation. The net evil arising there is (instead) $\frac{4}{8}=\frac{1}{2}$ or ½th.

In the case of a planet with more benefic dots, the benefic influence will be all the greater and more marked if the planet concerned should also be posited in its उच्च (Uchcha) house (with respect to the Lagna or the Moon), or occupy a friend's house, or his own sign or his exaltation sign.

स्वगृहेष्वथवोच्चांशगः स्वसूक्ष्मसुहृद्गृहस्थः ।
विपक्षेषगतोऽपि वा फलमतिवर्धेत शुभं यथादृष्टम् ॥ (विष्णुगीते)

If on the other hand the planet though getting more benefic dots should happen to be in its नीच (Neecha) house (reckoned either from the Lagna or the Moon), or in his depression sign or inimical sign, the good effect will be considerably reduced. If in the above case there be more malefic strokes instead of benefic dots, it will worsen the bad effect.

अथवाप्यरिगो नीचे सप्तमेऽस्ते च अन्यगेऽशगे वापि ।
यत्तु च शुभफलमुक्तं फलमतिनिकृष्टमेव तत्सर्वम् ॥

N. B.—The उच्चत्व (Uchchatva) or नीचत्व (Neechatva) places have to be reckoned with respect to the Lagna or the Moon at the time of birth and not by the position of the planets at the time of गोचर (Gochara).

cf. तथैवोक्तं

यत्तु स्वर्क्षत्रिकोणसुहृद्गेहेष्वित्यादिष्टमेतत्सर्वमुपचितं ।
यत्तत्र शुभफलत्वं यच्च नीचे च अरिगते अस्तगते विपक्षे ॥

देवज्ञः सौम्यबुद्धिश्चेत् सिद्धेदन्मोक्षके बलीयान् ।

Also अन्य

जन्मनामुपचयगते क्रौर्ये मृते सूचयेषु पुष्कलः ।
उपचयसंज्ञकभवनेषु संस्थितश्चेत् दुःखसंचयः ॥

"Those authors have to this effect specifically stated, by the words जन्मनाम् (Janmanām), क्रौर्ये (Saure), जन्मनि (Janmani), that good and bad places have to be determined with respect to the positions of planets at birth-time only. But at the time of reception the effects of planets reception, the Moon will cause their full good or bad effect to come to pass provided they are strong and not otherwise. In the case of the Moon even if she is benefic (i.e., placed in places such as उपचय (Upachaya), etc., and the final conditions the Moon happening to be associated with benefic dots) if she does not possess strength she produces only evil effects; for देवकीर्ति (Devakirti) says

सुखसंज्ञे पापयुते चन्द्रबलयुते धनेश दोषहृत् ।
सद् दृश्य सर्वेषां दुःखानां कारणं हीनम् ॥

Varahamihira can be said to be quite right (Varia) about the inability (to produce effects) on the part of planets devoid of strength owing to their being in depression, defeat in planetary war or combustion etc.

नीचस्थः शत्रुगेहस्थो रश्मिभिर्वा विदह्यते शशी ।
सुखगश्च सुखं मिश्रगता मिश्रं निर्बलगो बली ॥

Thus it will be seen that whatever effects—good or bad—have been ascribed owing to the planet being placed in sign of exaltation, Swakshetra, Upachaya etc., it always refers to the position of the planet or the time of birth; and whatever effects, good or bad, that have been ascribed to the planet itself generally without reference to any one of the particular place of occupation should be considered as indicating the result of the planet's transit in the connected places.

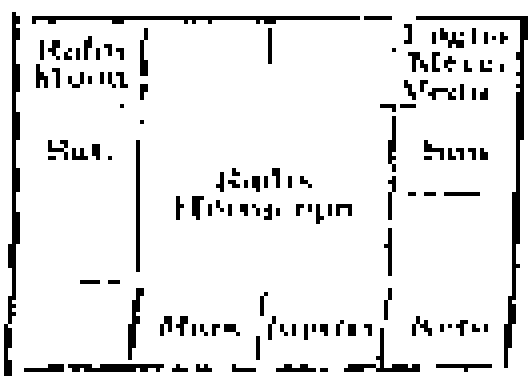

It may be mentioned here that in several Panchangams the heaven-lord (Gochara) places of planets are mentioned; i.e., if particular planets in their orbit in the zodiac pass through certain other places from the Moon, they become auspicious and so on. It will be seen that these are simply the benefic positions of that particular planet with respect to the Moon in that planet's Ashtakavarga and do not completely represent the entire benefic results of that planet.

The Ashtakavargas are used in connection with transits. For example Saturn transiting the 3rd sign will bring gains from the Moon is good provided the benefic dots in those places are above 4. Supposing in transiting the 3rd house from the Moon it is activity where the benefic dots are below 4. He will not be very good. The position in the 3rd house is not always good; but much cannot be expected of him because of the small number of benefic dots. The position in the 3rd house though usually a small number of benefic dots therein disposition him to be good.

It is a fact indisputable that planets exhibit certain amount of influence, whether for good or evil, during their transits at the time of consideration. In accordance with the number of benefic dots which the planets gain in their credit in their respective Ashtakavargas based on the position each of the planets occupy at the time of birth.

For example, let us consider the influence which the planets exert during the transit over the zodiacal horoscope given under, from the first week of December 1943.

It will be seen in the above that the Sun is occupying Vrischika and the Sun's Ashtakavarga figure in Vrischika is 5. Mars is in Simha and the number of benefic dots in Kujas Ashtakavarga is 6. Mercury is posited in Vrischika and the number of benefic dots under Budha's Ashtakavarga is 5. Jupiter is in Simha and the number of benefic points in Jupiter's Ashtakavarga is 3. The planet Venus occupies Tula and the number of benefic dots there in the Ashtakavarga of Venus is 6. Saturn is in Makara; and in Sani's Ashtakavarga, the number of benefic dots in Makara is 4. Thus, the sum total of benefic dots for the said week for all the six planets taken together comes to 29.

Now 32 benefic dots are the maximum limit in favourable activity for good in all respects. It may however be safely predicted that the native will be free from worry, fear, etc., and his situation will only be of a normal nature as the sum total of the benefic dots in all the six planets taken together comes to 29. In this specimen horoscope, as the number of benefic dots comes to 29, it can safely be said that the native will be free from anxiety and worry in the said period. The less the number of benefic dots, the worse will be the effects to be experienced by the native.

Bhattotpala adds:

Varahamihira has stated (Brihat Jataka, Chapter VIII, Sloka 23) that when two similar effects but contrary in nature are produced by one and the same planet (owing to its ownership of two houses, or occupation of one house and occupation of another house), the result will be nil when the two effects referred to are equal in degree and that it will partake of the nature of the preponderating effect in case they are not of equal degree.

एकस्य यदि वैकल्यमैक्यमिति यदुक्तमिदानीं तदेव पुनरुच्यते इति चेत्, न।

A question may now be asked what the author's object was by making a similar declaration again through the words "यदि वैकल्यमैक्यमिति" etc. "No, it is no repetition at all. What was stated before without the aid of Ashtakavarga Table relates to the cancellation of two similar effects but of a contrary character. For example, a planet in one capacity may be a giver of wealth; the same planet in another capacity may cause loss of wealth. In such a case, both the effects are similar in character and because pertaining with the consequence that the native neither acquires wealth nor incurs any losses. But if the planet's capacity to give wealth be in any way stronger for more reasons than one, the same will of course predominate over the opposite current (of the other effect) and the result will be an influx of some money. In the present verse it has been stated that there is cancellation in the case of good and bad effects even if they are not similar in nature. This view is further supported by उत्पल (Utpalasvamin) and सान (Vasana) as they have submitted this principle while speaking about Ashtakavarga and their several effects. Thus, for example, a certain planet may be the giver of gold on account of a certain reason. The same planet may on account of some other reason cause loss in silver. Though the effects in these two cases are not similar (because both are not in respect to gold and to silver), merely on account of the effects being opposite in nature (one giving and the other taking away), the result is neither benefic, nor malefic. After such considerations of each item on account of its 8 contentages if it is found that benefic points outnumber the malefic, the effect of the planet on that item should be declared as benefic to the extent of the excess benefic points already stated.

Now the following question may be raised: Well, if Ashtakavarga there is no importance for ascertaining the nature of the effects, what was the necessity for Varahamihira treating separately on the Rishtas? Should the distance (Vedhamandala) of planets with respect to the Moon's place at birth? The answer is, the intention of Varahamihira is that such of the effects which have not been stated in connection with the Ashtakavarga should be stated in the Rishtas (Vedhana). Further as it (Ashtakavarga) is well known to all, and as it has been treated at so many places in their works, it has to be inferred that Varahamihira has adopted the same process followed by his predecessors. For he has said in his work also (Vivaha).

अत्र सिद्धसमाख्यातान्यत्र नैवाष्टकवर्गिकाये च ये ।
अन्यत्रोक्ता न चोक्तास्ते ते वक्ष्यन्तेऽरिष्टवर्गे ते ॥

Varāhamihira too, after describing the effects separately, has accepted this Ashtakavarga system alone as of primary importance: for he has said

षड्वर्गयोः सुखमवेक्ष्य समासकल्पाध्यर्धौ प्रवेदौ ।
ग्रहाधीनस्तु फलस्य पक्षे स्थितार्थे चाष्टकवर्गके च सञ्चुक्षये च ॥

Rudrayāma also has said

अष्टवर्गे सुखार्थेषु पक्षे चैव स्थानं भावः फलानीतरत्र चादः ।
चक्रवा पक्षिदोषनिर्णयत्वेन एवात्र एवोक्ते स्थानि एकवर्गे सदिष्टा ॥ and I too have accepted only the Ashtakavarga method.

THE ASHTAKAVARGA PLATE.

The process of finding the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the several planets in accordance with the method given in pages 678-679 supra involves heavy labour and considerable time especially when it has to be done for several horoscopes. Some methods of simplifying this work have been suggested in the past, but a new contrivance has now been devised which has several merits. It not only does away with the patient labour involved in the dull and routine process, but also shows the results in such a way that one can see at a glance how the benefic dots in any particular house have been contributed. The संशोधन (Sarvashtaka bhinna) figures can also be very easily read from the plates at a glance. The practical uses to which the results can be put are, as is known to astrologers, several. The more important of these used have been explained in this Adhyaya in their appropriate places.

The construction of the Ashtakavarga plate and the method of reading the results from the same will now be explained.

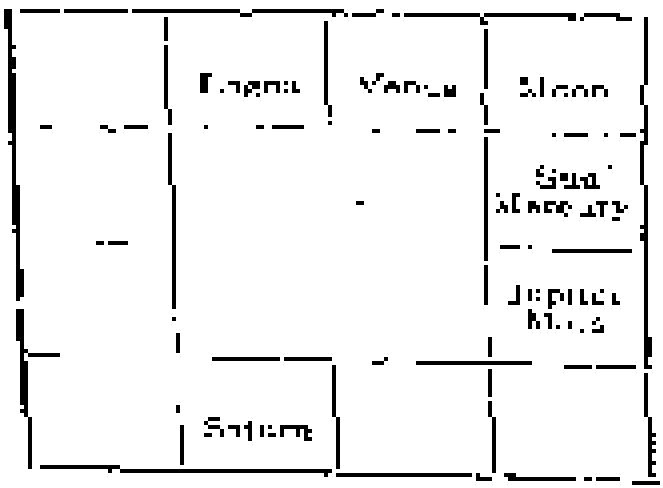

The contrivance consists of nine circular plates (discs of iron, copper or brass) of successively larger radii placed one over the other in the order of their size, the largest being placed at the bottom and the smallest at the top. A radius of one inch for the smallest and three inches for the largest, the difference between the radii of successive plates being $\frac{1}{16}$th of an inch will be found suitable. The bottom most plate has an axle with screw arrangement fixed to its centre about which the other plates revolve. By tightening the screw at the top, the plates can be fixed up in any desired position. Each plate covers the central portions of the next bigger plate, exposing to view only a circular strip or rim. The top plate is of course fully exposed.

The top plate and the narrow strips of other plates are each divided into 12 equal parts. The dividing lines are so drawn that they form a straight line when the plates are adjusted for any horoscope. The twelve divisions of the top plate are assigned to the twelve signs of the zodiac. In the visible rim of the next bigger plate are arranged the figures indicating the benefic dots counted from the Sun in the several nisargabalas. The next plate contains figures of benefic dots counted from the Moon and the next one, from Mars; and so on in the order of the Sun, the Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus, Saturn and the Lagna. One of the divisions of each of these plates contains a dot denoting the position of the planet to which the plate relates. Thus the dot in the largest plate indicates the position of the Sun.

To adjust the plates for any horoscope, keep the bottom-most plate in position and rotate the next plate (relating to Saturn) until the division containing the dot is so many divisions removed from the dot on the Lagna plate as Saturn is removed from the Lagna in the horoscope under consideration. For example, if Saturn occupies the 8th house from the Lagna, move the plate relating to Saturn till its dot comes to the 8th division from the dot on the Lagna plate. Then hold the two plates in position firmly and proceed similarly with the third plate. Then hold the three plates in position and proceed with the fourth and so on. When the Sun's plate also has been thus fixed, remove the topmost plate until the house of the particular figure representing the Lagna in the horoscope under consideration is brought directly above the division containing the dot in the Lagna plate. It will now be found that the divisions containing the dots on the several plates are directly below the signs of the zodiac successively occupied by the planets at birth, so that the positions of the planets in the zodiac of the native can now be read out from the plate itself. Fix up the plates by tightening the screw at the top. They are now ready for reading the results. The '1's indicate benefic dots relating to the Sun's Ashtakavarga; the '2's indicate those relations to the Moon's, and so on. The number of '1's in the several plates in the 'Mesha' division represents the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the Sun in that division; the number of '1's in the several plates opposite to 'Vrishabha' representing the benefic dots in the Sun's Ashtakavarga in Vrishabha and so on. Similarly, the number of '2's in the divisions of the plates opposite to 'Mesha' represents the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the Moon in 'Mesha;' the number of '2's in the parts of the plates opposite to 'Vrishabha,' the benefic dots in the Ashtakavarga of the Moon in 'Vrishabha,' and so on. The number of '3's will similarly yield the results for Mars, '4's for Mercury, '5's for Jupiter, '6's for Venus and '7's for Saturn. The figure on the next page shows the plate properly arranged for the positions of the planets in the sample horoscope given below: -

It will be seen that the dotted division of the plate relating to the Sun has been brought against Rashi in the Sun occupies (Rashi in the Kundali (page 89); the dotted part of the plate

Slokas 1 and 2. If a diagram of the zodiac with the rising sign and the positions of the Sun and other planets (at the time of any person's birth) &c. be drawn, and if all the benefic dots produced by the separate Ashtakavargas (8 fold groups of figures) be set down according to the directions contained in the Ashtakavarga formulas each containing eight divisions in respect of the eight sky-rangers beginning with the Sun and ending with the Lagna or the rising sign we should then obtain the figures 48, 49, 39, 54, 56, 52 and 39 to represent the benefic dots of the Sun and other planets. The figure 337 will represent the aggregate benefic dots of the planets. सर्वाष्टकवर्ग (Sarvashtakavarga) or the sum of all the Ashtakavargas is called समुदाय (Samudaya) i.e. aggregate.

Sloka 3. In whatever bhava represented by Mesha and other signs occur eight benefic dots given by planets, that bhava, they serve to support, strengthen and prosperity. Houses containing 5, 6 and 7 dots become beneficent. Those that have 3, 2 or 1 dot are not auspicious.

Sloka 4. When a house has 4 dots, it produces mixed effects. Those houses that have no figure in them are productive of disease, infamy and danger. I now proceed to explain the full effects of the Sun and other planets being associated with dots 1, 2, etc., as a result of the separate Ashtakavargas.

Sloka 5.- A planet associated with one dot produces various kinds of diseases, miseries, dangers, wanderings and similar hardships, while with two, it leads to mental anguish, condemnation by one's king (caused by the sovereign) and deprivation of food by robbers.

Notes.

The causes of bereaft over malefic dots may be 2, 4, 7 or 8 which also put in ordinary language mean 1 or 3, 5 or 6, 2 or 4, 7 or 8 or 6, 8 or 5, 7 or 6, 8.

Hence the following slokas :—

Sloka 6. When the number of dots are three, it causes many bodily privations and discomforts due to a wandering life as well as much mental uneasiness. The planet with four dots yields a mixed kind of fruit consisting of pleasure and pain, expenditure of money and accession of wealth.

Sloka 7. When the dots happen to be five, it leads to the attainment of good apparel, fondling of children, association with the good, acquisition of learning and wealth. A planet that has 6 dots secures a form fresh and fascinating, excellence of character, victory in war, wealth, brave strength and fine vehicles.

Sloka 8. When the number of dots go up to 7, the planet brings honours such as accrue from the possession of horses and other means of transport, an army and superior riches. When the maximum of eight dots is reached, it opens out a prospect of kingly glory graced with its seven-fold adjuncts (सप्तवल्लभ: शिवदृश्य-मश्नुते).

Notes-

Some books read सप्तवाहन or which would mean kingly glory graced with every one of its adjuncts.

Sloka 9. A planet is invariably benefic in his own varga in any sign which has five or more dots. If otherwise, it yields no good effects. In its range in a sign which is without dots, it becomes positively hostile.

Sloka 10. Śloka 13. When the Sun is in the rising sign and in that part of it which either belongs to an enemy or forms his depression point and when he happens to be associated with 3 or 2 dots, the person born is sickly. But if the same Sun should be in the rising sign in which 5 or more dots appear and which happens to be his exaltation sign or his own house, the person born becomes a King and is endowed with long life.

NOTES.

Note that the planets here have been mentioned in the order of their orbits round the Zodiac.

Let us now draw the प्रस्तारार्थ (Prastharasthaka Varga) Table and set therein the benefic dots for the Sun's Ashtakavarga in the sample horoscope referred to in page 457 supra.

The 48 benefic dots will be distributed as shown below:

There are three benefic dots in Mesha, and it will be seen that these have been contributed by the Sun, Mercury and the Lagna. While the other five planets have each contributed a malefic one.

When the Sun transits through the sign Mesha, he will give benefic results only during three periods viz., the 4th, the 5th and the 8th portions; that is when he is passing from (1) 7½° to 13° (2) 18½° to 22½° and (3) 26½° to 30° of that sign; the remaining five periods will prove malefic. Similarly in the case of the rest

The two slokas represent the opposite views of two distinct schools. The conflicting views rest on two distinct interpretations put upon the sloka enunciating the rule for त्रिकोणशोधना (Trikona-sodhana), "त्रिकोणेषु त्रयाणां त्रयाणां शुद्धिं विधाय" which when translated will stand thus:- When one of three triangular houses contains the least number of bindus deduct that same in turn subtracted from the figure in each of the triangular group. This rendering is not accepted by some who maintain that "शुद्धिं विधाय" means that the figures in the three signs of a triangular group are to be altered so as to equal the least number. The latter view is advanced by भट्टभद्र (Bhattabhadra) and appears to be correct in Southern India.

For the example referred to in sloka 31 above, the subjoined sketch shows the Suryashtakavarga figures before and after Trikona reduction:

Śloka 40. If the two Rasis having a common lord be both occupied by planets, no reduction need be made. If one of the two Rasis (whether occupied or unoccupied) have no benefic dots, then also there is no reduction. If one of the two Rasis be occupied and contain more benefic dots than the other, remove the figure in the latter. If both the Rasis be unoccupied and have the same number of benefic dots, remove both.

Śloka 41. When one of the two Rasis is occupied by a planet and the other not, and both have the same number of benefic dots, remove the figure in the unoccupied Rasi. If both the Rasis be unoccupied and have an unequal number of benefic dots, the greater figure is to be replaced by the less.

Sloka 42. When only one of the two Rasis with a common lord is occupied by a planet and has a smaller number of benefic dots than the unoccupied Rasi, the figure in the latter is to be made equal to the former. The Trikona reduction is to be made first of all; the net figures are then to be subjected to the एकाधिपत्य (Ekadhipatya) reduction.

Sloka 43. The net figures after the two reductions in the several signs are to be multiplied each into its राशिमान (Rasimana), i.e. Rasi factor; and the products made into a total is called गणगुणक (Rasiguṇaka) i.e. the sum of the Rasi-products. The net figures associated with the Sun and other planets in the several signs are to be multiplied each into its appropriate planetary factor or ग्रहमान (Grahamana). The total of these products is called ग्रहगुणक (Grahaguṇaka), i.e. total of Graha products.

Slokas 44 & 45. Ascertain the sum-total of the Rasi products obtained by multiplying the figures in the several signs from Mesha onwards by their appropriate Rasi-multipliers. These for the 12 signs from Mesha onwards are 7, 10, 8, 4, 10, 5, 7, 8, 9, 5, 11 and 12. Ascertain also the sum-total of the Graha products obtained by multiplying the figures in the signs occupied by the several planets into their appropriate Graha multipliers. These for the 7 Grahas from the Sun onwards are 8, 6, 8, 5, 10, 7 and 5. Add the aggregate of Rasi products to the aggregate of Graha products. Divide the grand total by 30. If the quotient should exceed 12 years, divide it by 12 and what is left exhibits the Ayus or period of life given by the planet.

Similarly the Graha Gunaka will be 90. [composed of 10+14 for Mercury and Venus in Midhuna, 10 for the Sun in Mithuna, 20 for Jupiter in Thula, 10 for Mars in Vrischika, 10 for Saturn in Kumbha and 10 for the Moon in Meena.]

The sum of Real Gunaka and Graha Gunaka is 162+90 or 252.

The Ayus contributed by the Sun is $\frac{252}{27}$ or 9½ years. Similarly for the other planets.

But both भट्ट (Bhattotpala) and मन्त्रेश्वर (Mantreswara) prescribe a method different from this for calculating the दशाकलाक्षुण्ण (Dasakalakshunna).

Multiply the sum total of the two products (viz., those for Raśi and Graha) by 7 and divide the product by 27. The quotient will be in years, months, etc. When the number of years thus obtained exceeds 27, subtract from it 27 or multiples of 27. The result will be the Ayus given by the planet when not liable to the reductions to be mentioned in the foot-note to the next sloka.

उच्चं गतस्य द्विगुणं तद्वर्षं नीचं गतस्यार्धमुदाहृतम् ।
अतोऽन्यथाले त्वनुपातमायुरस्य धके द्विगुणीकृतं स्यात् ॥ ४६ ॥

Sloka 46. If a planet be in its exaltation, double the number of years obtained for it by the Ashtakavarga process. If it be depressed or eclipsed, the number of years in its case is to be halved. Obtain by proportion the Ayus when the planet occupies an intermediate position. In the case of Mars when retrograde, the Ayus obtained is to be doubled.

NOTES.

Compare what Sri Krishna Jyotishi says on the subject:

The Ayus obtained is to be halved when the planet yielding the Ayurdaya has another planet associated with it in the same bhava. The same reduction is to be made when a planet is depressed or obscured by the Sun's rays. If the planet occupy an equinoctial house or be in the visible hemisphere, the reduction is by ¼. When the Sun and the Moon happen to be in the nodes and in eclipses, the reduction is also by ½. Where several reductions crop up, it will be enough if the greatest of them be made. The net years, months, &c. thus obtained is to be multiplied by 360 and divided by 365. The life-period will be obtained in years [of 365 days] months, etc. In this way, ascertain generally the Daya periods of all the planets. The Ashtakavarga process is the best of all.

In the case of planets that have attained their मूलत्रिकोण, स्वक्षेत्र (Moolatrikona, Swakshetra) or a friendly house or occupy such benefic vargas as their exaltation, and are in conjunction with benefic planets or are aspected by them, the Ayus is to be calculated in the manner prescribed above. When a planet is in the varga of a malefic or inimical planet the Ayus arrived at must undergo reduction.

Sloka 48. The number of years representing the maximum period of life in the case of men is obtained by putting together the figures denoting the years given by the Sun and other planets. These latter, some say upon the authority of great teachers (like फेरु-प्रभृति) should be supplemented by the number of years for the Lagna (deduced from the Lagna ashtakavarga) in order to get the Ayus conformably with the conditions of any horoscope that may be under examination.

Notes:-

The crux of the net Ayurdaya in the 7 Bhinnashtakavargas is the length of life according to the view expounded in this sloka.

Sloka 51. In the Ashtakavarga of any planet, make the two reductions and multiply the total of the remaining benefic dots into the number of benefic dots (before reduction) in the particular bhava wherein the planet is कक्ष (Kaksha) reckoned from the place occupied by the planet. Divide the product by 27 and ascertain the asterism corresponding to the remainder. When Saturn passes through this asterism, death will take place of the person indicated by the bhava and its कक्ष (Kaksha). If the Sun be the भावकक्ष (bhavakaksha), it is the father that will die; if the Moon, the mother; if Mars, a brother; if Mercury, a relation; if Jupiter, a son; if Venus, a wife; if Saturn, it is the owner of the horoscope that will die; if at the time mentioned, the persons named do not die, some others on a par with them will die or much wealth and prosperity will be lost.

NOTES.

Thus, in the example on p. 557, the 9th house counted from the Sun is Simha. The figure there in the Sun's Ashtakavarga is 5 (vide chart in p. 556). The sum total of the benefic dots remaining after the two reductions is 19 (see p. 603). Multiplying 5 by 19 and dividing by 27 we get 14. The 14th star counted from Aswini is Jyeshtha (Chitra). When Saturn passes through this asterism, we have to say that the father of the native or some others on a par with him may die or much wealth and prosperity may be lost.

given by the Sun and other planets and arranged appropriately in Mesha and the other Rasis. I shall now proceed to treat of the effect upon each bhava of the benefic dots grouped in it.

Notes.

The following 2 memorable slokas from [illegible] Manitthavara's [illegible] (Phalapradipika) give the aggregate of the benefic dots appearing in the 12 places with reference to the seven planets and the Lagna in the several Ashtakavargas. Sloka 58. Some recommend the omission of the benefic dots in the 12th as well as in the 8th bhava from their several divisions; the aggregate benefic dots in any one division should be compared with the same in the other two. If the figures in the three divisions be equal, the life of the person concerned would be a mixed one with its joys and sorrows evenly distributed; if unequal, the lower figure implies diminution of comfort, i.e. misery; the higher one betokens increased comforts, i.e. prosperity.

Sloka 59. If benefic planets occupy the signs of any division, the portion of life corresponding to this खण्ड (Khanda) will be happy. If the signs of a खण्ड (khanda) have both malefic and benefic planets in them, the effect on the portion of the life typified by the खण्ड (khanda) will be mixed; if any division contains malefic planets exclusively, the period of life represented will abound in accessions of affliction. If the number of benefic dots in any division be small, the person born will suffer from disease and mental pain and will be speaking evil things. If there be a preponderance of benefic dots in a खण्ड (Khanda), the person concerned will enjoy extensive prosperity in the period of life thus distinguished.

Sloka 69. Deal in the above way with the aggregate of benefic dots counted from Saturn to Lagna, and with those from Mars to Lagna, as well as from Lagna to Mars, severally. Find the aggregate of benefic dots in the Rasis occupied by benefic planets and the star indicated thereby. When a benefic planet passes through this asterism, good things, they say, may be expected.

Out of the figures left after the two reductions in the several Rasis, go on subtracting 12 as often as possible. If the reduced figure happens to be 12 itself, it is not to be taken away. Multiply this by 7 and divide the product by 27. The quotient consisting of years, months, days, etc., if in excess of the standard Ayus, i.e. 120 years, should be diminished by 120 years; if short of 120 is to be kept unaltered. This will represent the वायवायुस् (Nakshatra Ayus) which when multiplied by 324 and divided by 805 will give the period of life correctly in solar years.

Adhyaya XI.

THE EFFECTS OF THE 1ST AND THE 2ND BHAVAS.

Sloka 1. I am to treat of the good and other effects which are the chief source of adornment to the science of astrology just as they arise in the several bhavas appertaining to men owing to the preponderating influence of planets. Among the Lagna and other bhavas, such as are occupied or aspected by Venus, Mercury, Jupiter or the भावपति (Bhavapathi—the lord of the bhava concerned), but unaspected by or unassociated with the rest, produce happy results.

cf. सत्याचार्यः

Sloka 2. When the Lagna and some of the other bhavas have benefic planets appearing in them or are occupied or aspected by their lords, a wealth of the said bhavas may be declared to exist provided they are unaspected or unoccupied by malefic planets.

नीचस्थो रिपुराशिस्थः खेटो भावविनाशकृत् ।
मूलत्रिकोणमित्रस्थो भाववृद्धिकरो भवेत् ॥ ३ ॥

Sloka 3. A planet in its depression or inimical sign destroys the bhava that it owns. But in its मूलत्रिकोण (Moolatrikona), exaltation or friendly sign it advances the same.

Sloka 4. When a bhava has its lord in the 6th, the 8th or the 12th, or is occupied by the lord of one of these three, it suffers annihilation, say those that know the properties of a bhava If such a bhava be aspected by a benefic planet, the effect will be different.

भद्रात्मनः केन्द्रगतो बिलग्नाद् त्रिकोणगो वा यदि सौम्यदृष्टः ।

Sloka 5. If the lord of a bhava occupying a Kendra or Trikona position from the Lagna possess abundant strength being either aspected by benefic planets or in its exaltation and other Vargas, that bhava, say the wise astrologers, is in a flourishing condition.

Sloka 6. Astrologers pronounce the strength of a bhava such as the Lagna to be ample and thoroughly beneficent when a Trikona, the 4th, the 7th or the 10th place therefrom is occupied by an auspicious planet or more (bhavapa—the lord of the bhava) and is unoccupied or unaspected by malefic planets. A bhava suffers decay when the positions referred to above are differently occupied and aspected The effect of a bhava will be mixed when the positions noted above are occupied or aspected by benefic and malefic planets promiscuously.

Sloka 7. Of the Lagna and other bhavas examined in succession, whichever bhava has its lord occupying the 8th place (from it) or obscured by the solar rays or in depression or in an inimical house, while no benefic planets aspect or are associated with it, the astrologers declare the total destruction of such a bhava. The lord of the bhava concerned even in the event of being associated with other planets is incapable of producing any good effect.

दुःस्थाने नाशगेऽस्ते दुर्बले भावनाथके ।

Sloka 8. Planets occupying a bhava cannot advance it when its lord is in a दुःस्थान (Dushthana—6th, 8th or 12th place from it) or an inimical house or in a state of eclipse or impotence.

दुष्टस्थितो वाऽपि यदा गभेशः पापग्रहीनाशकर्मसंस्थो वा ।
स्वोच्चस्वमित्रांशकराशियुक्तः शुभेक्षितो वा यदि शोभनः स्यात् ॥ ९ ॥

Sloka 9. A planet may even be badly placed or occupy a नवांश (Navamsa) owned by a malefic, inimical or its own depression sign; it will nevertheless prove beneficial when the Navamsa or Rasi occupied by it is its own, or that of its exaltation sign or of a friendly planet no less than when benefic planets aspect it.

भावेशाक्रान्तराशीशो दुःस्थो भावस्य दुर्बलम् ।
शोभनस्वस्वराशिस्थे भावपुष्टिं वदेद्गुरुः ॥ १० ॥

Sloka 10. When the planet owning the sign occupied by the lord of a bhava is badly placed, the bhava becomes weak. But when the planet referred to above is in its exaltation, in a friendly sign or in its own house, the astrologer may pronounce the bhava to be flourishing.

यद्भावलग्नघनत्रिक्रमराशियाता यद्भादनाथसुहृदश्च यदुच्चनाथः।
तद्भावपुष्टिबलमम्बरचारिणस्ते कुर्वन्ति मूढरिपुनीचविवर्जिताश्चेत् ॥

Sloka 11. When the lord of a bhava, the friends of the भाव (bhavapa) and the lord of the exaltation sign of the भाव (bhavapa) occupy the 11th, the 2nd and the 3rd places in respect to the bhava, those planets advance the strength of the bhava, provided they be not eclipsed or in an unfriendly sign or in depression.

Sloka 12. A planet produces the full effect of the bhava in which it is when its distance from the bhava-sandhi is equal to that of the bhavamsa (भभाग = amsa-bhava). When the planet has a less or greater distance from a bhava-sandhi than a bhavamsa, its effect must be ascertained by a rule-of-three process.

NOTES.

This sloka is taken from भावविवेक (Bhavaviveka).

Sloka 13. The body, its hue, its form, its characteristics, fame, qualities, happiness or unhappiness, residence abroad, splendour, strength and weakness are the products, say the wise astrologers, of the 1st bhava.

Notes.

This sloka appears in मानसागरी The third पाद [Pada] reads thus: शरीरचिह्नाकृतिलक्षणानि.

सत्यधिराजनृपपूजितः सुखी कलं भवेत् सौम्यगुतं यथा तथा ।
कर्म यदि स्वामिनरीक्षितं धनी कृशायबुद्धिः कुलकीर्तिवर्धनः १४

Sloka 14. The more auspicious the rising sign is at a person's birth, the longer will he live; the more will he command the respect of the rulers and the happier in consequence will he be. And if the rising sign be also aspected by its lord, he will be a master of riches, quite a genius and a great credit to his family.

Sloka 15. An astrologer may declare the nature and peculiar features of a person from the lord of the ruling Navamsa at his birth or from a powerful planet occupying the Lagna. His hue should be guessed from the lord of the Navamsa occupied by the Moon. All good and evil in the life of the person is to be ascertained through the Lagna.

Notes.

Notes.

This sloka suggests a mantra. The reading there is चतुःसमुद्रान्तयशाः for चतुःसमुद्रान्तयशः.

cf. also the following sloka from the same work.

Sloka 17. A person becomes obscure if, at his birth, the lord of the rising sign being in the house of a malefic planet, occupies the 6th, 8th or 12th place from the Lagna and is aspected by or associated with a malignant planet.

Notes.

For the first pāda, मानसागर reads क्रोधेशे स्वगते च पे.

Sloka 18. If the lord of the कीर्तिभाव (Keerti-bhava), i.e. the 10th be in the Lagna, the person born will become famous. If the planet be in the 3rd bhava and have attained its exaltation and other benefic vargas he will have remarkable celebrity. If the planet be in a bad place, he will be knocked up by ceaseless travelling or will be a knave. But if the planet occupy a Kendra or Trikona in conjunction with a benefic planet, the person will have ease in travelling.

Notes.

This sloka finds a place in पाराशरम्.

If the lord of the 3rd bhava be in the Lagna or the कारक (Karaka—Mars) as well as the lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhatrubhava) be together in one house and possess strength, a brother of the person born will become renowned.

Notes.

For the latter half of this sloka, पाराशर has the following:

Notes.

विद्याधिप (Vidyadhipa) here means the lord of the 2nd bhava; (vide śloka 49 infra) and not that of the 4th bhava referred to in XII. 52 infra.

The same remark applies to the term सुत.

Sloka 24. When the lord of the 12th place from that occupied by the lord of the lagna is in a Kendra or Trikona from the 1st bhava, and in a Rasi which is a friend's house, its own or its exaltation sign and has auspicious planets on each side, the person born will be a sojurner in regions pleasing to the heart. If the स्वप (Vyayapa) referred to above be aspected by Jupiter, the Moon or Venus, he goes to a charmingly beautiful land; but if this स्वप (Vyayapa) occupy the 2nd place from the lord of the Lagna and be unfriendly to the latter, the person will abide in his native land.

Sloka 25. When a movable sign is the Lagna and its lord is in a movable Rasi and aspected by planets occupying movable Rasis, the person born will have his fortune in a foreign country. When an immoveable sign is the Lagna and its lord is also in an immoveable sign and aspected by planets occupying fix moveable signs, the person will be in his own country, exceedingly prosperous and possessed of abundant wealth.

Notes.

This Sloka appears also in भावकुतूहल.

होराधीशे पापखेटे रिपुस्थे पापक्षेत्रे मान्दपुत्रेक्षयुक्ते ।
शूद्रप्रायो राहुणा केतुना वा जातभाण्डालोऽथवा नीचतुल्यः ॥२६॥

Sloka 26. When the lord of the Lagna is a malefic planet and occupies the 6th place from the Lagna being associated with Saturn in a malefic sign, the person born will be like a Sudra. And if Rahu or Ketu take the place of Saturn in the above, the person will be a Chandala or some equally low person in his habits.

Sloka 27. When the lord of the Lagna is in an auspicious sign and is possessed of strength, the person born will be in good case having a command of all bodily comforts. When the planet in the Lagna is in a depression or inimical Navamsa and happens to be the lord of a दुःस्थान (Dusthana), the person born will lack bodily comforts.

Cf. भावकुतूहल

Sloka 28. If the three planets owning the 6th, the 8th and the 12th bhavas from the Lagna be connected with the Lagna, one of them aspecting it, another owning it and the third occupying it, and if they at the same time be in their inimical or depression signs devoid of all strength, they can do no good at the time of the ripening of their several dasa periods.

Sloka 29. When the Lagna is a watery sign and is occupied by benefic planets, astrologers declare stoutness of person as the effect thereof. When the lord of the Lagna occupies a watery sign and is in conjunction with benefic planets, the person born, say the astrologers, will have a sound constitution.

Notes.

तत्तनुपुष्टि is the reading adopted by Venkata for तत्तनुपुष्टि in the 3rd पद of this sloka.

लग्नाधिपे शोषगते तु शुष्कराशौ तनोः कृशत्वं बलिनं वदन्ति ।
लग्नाधिपस्यांशपराशिनाथः शुष्कग्रहः स्यात्तनुशुष्कमाहुः ॥ ३० ॥

Sloka 30. When the lord of the Lagna is in the 8th bhava and in a dry sign, astrologers say that the person born will have great bodily suffering. If the lord of the Rasi in which is the planet owning the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the Lagna be a planet owning a dry sign, the effect will be emaciation.

Notes.

Some books read स्वस्यांशराशिनाथः

मध्यगर्क्षे रिपुखेटयोस्तनुपतौ जातोऽरिभीतो भवेत्
केतौ लग्नगतेऽथवा फणिपतौ दुःस्थे विलग्नाधिपे ।

लग्ने तनुपतौ व्रणिघ्नयुते देहव्रणं देहिनाम् ॥ ३१ ॥

Sloka 31. When the lord of the Lagna is between two inimical planets, the person born will be in dread of enemies. If Ketu or Rahu be in the Lagna and the lord thereof be in a दुःस्थान (Dusthánam 6th, 8th or 12th), the person will suffer privation of some limb in the ripening of the dasa of the lord of the Lagna and in the antardasa of the lord of the 6th house (from the lord of the Lagna). If the lord of the 6th house from the Lagna occupy it in conjunction with Rahu or Ketu, an ulcer will break out in the body.

Notes.

This appears in Sanskrit. In the 3rd line, वैफल्य is the reading adopted there for वदरीश in the text.

पञ्चमेऽरिगृहे यदि लग्ननाथे केन्द्रत्रिकोणे सति रोगमाङ् नरः स्यात् ।
लग्नेशयद्गृहिपराधिनाथे दुःस्थानगे दुर्बलदेहवान् स्यात् ॥ ३२ ॥

Sloka 32. If the lord of the Lagna occupying a Trikona or a Kendra be devoid of strength, the person born will be ailing. If the lord of the house occupied by the lord of the Lagna be in a दुःस्थान (Dusthánam), he will have a weak constitution.

Notes.

(First half). The following verse leading to the same effect is given in addition:

दुःस्थानगेनापि दुर्बले विलग्ने स नरः रोगवान् स्यात् ॥

सक्रूरो वेधपो देहर्क्षेऽष्टहान्त्यारिसंस्थगः ।
सारीशे देहपे दुःस्थे लग्नेशे वाऽथ रोगवान् ॥ ३३ ॥

Sloka 33. The lord of the Lagna occupying the 12th, 6th or 8th bhava (from the Lagna) in conjunction with a malefic planet destroys the bodily health of the person born. He will be ailing if the lord of the 1st bhava in conjunction with the lord of the 6th occupies a दुःस्थान (Dusthana) or the Lagna.

If the lord of the 6th bhava from the Lagna be also in conjunction with the lord of the Lagna in the above position, the person born will be dark in personal appearance; but if Rahu be with the lord of the Lagna, the person concerned will surely run the risk of treachery or poison.

धनस्थे यदि लग्नेशे निधिमान् बलसंयुते ।
दुर्बले पापसंयुक्ते वंचनादिफलं वदेत् ॥ ५२ ॥

Sloka 52. When the lord of the Lagna occupies the 2nd bhava in strength, the person born will possess a treasure. If the planet in question be weak and associated with a malefic planet, the person concerned will suffer the consequence of deception or other trick practised upon him.

धनस्थितः पापदृग् समेतः सपत्नदीक्षार्ककरार्दितश्च ।

Sloka 53. When the planet occupying the 2nd bhava is aspected by a malefic planet and is unfriendly to the lord of that bhava or in depression or eclipsed by the Sun's rays, the person born will suffer pecuniary loss in the ripening of the dasa of that planet. The same thing happens when the planet in question in its progress through the zodiac becomes powerful for evil.

कुटुम्बभावे बहुखेटयुक्ते धनप्रकर्त्र्योश्चरे बलाढ्ये ।
स्वतुङ्गमित्रस्वगृहोपगे वा धनं समेत्यामरणान्तमाहुः ॥ ५४ ॥

Sloka 54. When the 2nd bhava is occupied by many (benefic) planets and the धनकर्त्र (Dhanakaraka) is possessed of strength or occupies its exaltation, a friendly sign or its own house, the person born, say the astrologers, will be getting wealth till the moment of his death.

Notes.

Venus (Dhanapatha) may also mean the lord of the 2nd bhava.

विधाधीशे सौद्रेशेन मुक्ते लग्ने च भ्रातृवित्तं समेति ।
मातृस्थानस्वामिना मातृवित्तं चन्द्रार्केणान्विते तद्वत् स्यात् ५५

Sloka 55. When the lord of the 2nd bhava is in the Lagna associated with the lord of the 3rd, the person born will get wealth acquired by a brother. If the lord of the 4th bhava take the place of the lord of the 3rd bhava in the above the person concerned will inherit property from his mother. Generally, wealth comes in connection with that bhava wherein the lord occupies the Lagna in conjunction with the lord of wealth.

यद्भावस्थौ लग्नवित्तेश्वरौ स्तः तन्मूला तु द्रव्यवित्तिर्नराणाम् ५६

Sloka 56. When the lord of wealth occupies the Lagna and the lord of that bhava occupies the 2nd, wealth comes to the person born without any effort at all. Whatever bhava the lords of the 1st and 2nd bhavas may together occupy, it is through that bhava that acquisition of wealth on the part of men usually takes place.

चन्द्रः कुटुम्बभवने शुक्रेण निरीक्षितः सदा च ।
सौम्ये शुभसंदृष्टे स्व एव धनवान् सदा ज्ञेयः ॥ ५७ ॥

Sloka 57. When the Moon occupying the 2nd bhava is aspected by Venus, the person born will be magnificent. If Mercury in the 3rd bhava be aspected by a benefic planet, he will have, be it remembered, wealth at his command at all times.

Sloka 58. Note in what quarter the lord of the 2nd bhava is; it is in that quarter chiefly that men will find their prosperity during the dasa period of the lord of the 2nd bhava: for when moving ordinarily the planet leads to the acquisition of wealth in the region indicated. If it be retrograde at the time of birth, there will be acquisition of every valuable thing in all quarters.

धनेशे लाभसंयुक्ते लाभेशे धनलाभगे ।
लाभधौ केन्द्रगौ वापि धनवान् ख्यातिमान् भवेत् ॥ ५९ ॥

Sloka 59. If the lord of the 2nd bhava be in the 11th and the lord of the 11th be in the 2nd or the 11th, or if the lords of the 2nd and the 11th bhavas from the Lagna occupy a Kendra, the person born will be wealthy and renowned.

Notes.

धनेशे च विलग्नस्थे is another reading.

लग्नधनभाग्येशाः परमोच्चांशसंयुताः ।
वैशेषिकांशगा लग्ने यदा कोटीश्वरो भवेत् ॥ ६३ ॥

Sloka 63. When the lords of the 1st, 11th, 2nd and the 9th bhavas have attained their highest exaltation Navamsa, or Vaiseshikamsas (vide Adhyaya 1, sls. 44-47), the person born will be lord of a crore or crores.

Sloka 64. When the lord of the 2nd bhava is eclipsed by the Sun's rays and in depression and in a malefic 60th portion of a sign, the person born will become plunged in debt.

Notes.

For the same effect the following yoga is quoted in Jataka-

पापे चन्द्रे लक्षपतौ लग्ने तु कर्णपंगुली तु नीचे ।
चन्द्रांशगतौ वा शुभकर्मणिरौ सहजादिभिर्खलनरोत्र जातः ॥

शुक्रेन्दुनयनाधिपैरेकस्थैस्तु निशान्धकः ।

Sloka 65. A person becomes night-blind when Venus, the Moon and the lord of the 2nd bhava are together in one bhava. When the Sun, Venus and the lord of the 1st bhava are invisible (being in that portion of the zodiac which comprises the bhavas from 2 to 7, both inclusive), the person concerned will have eyes of medium visual power.

NOTES.

This (वा in पापे) in the light of Sloka 59 of Adhyaya 6 should be taken to refer to the 1st bhava or the Lagna.

If there be several malefic planets in the 2nd bhava and Saturn aspect the same, the person born will have diseased eyes (will be blear-eyed).

शुभेऽपि भावे सहजाभिवृद्धिः शुभाशुभं मिश्रफलं वदन्ति ॥ ११ ॥

Sloka 11. If a malefic planet occupy a Trikoni or a Kendra from the 3rd bhava, the consequence will be the loss of the next younger brother. If a benefic planet occupy such a position, it will redound to the prosperity of the younger brother. If there be a combination of good and bad planets in the positions referred to, the effect will be mixed.

Sloka 12. If the Moon in conjunction with the lord of the 3rd bhava occupy a दुःस्थान (Dusthana), the person born, say the astrologers, will suck the breast of one, not his own mother. When the lords of the 3rd and the 4th bhavas are in the latter, the भ्रातृस्थान (Bhratrusthana) flourishes not.

Sloka 13. If the lords of the 3rd and the 4th bhavas be in conjunction with Mars, they lead to the birth of an younger brother; if in conjunction with other planets, there may be no younger brother. Saturn in the 3rd bhava brings about the loss of the next born;

Sloka 9. If the lord of the 2nd bhava be in great strength in the 8th bhava and if the कुजक (Bhratru-Karaka) be in conjunction with a malefic planet and also with the lord of the 4th place from the 3rd bhava, the person born, say the astrologers, will have brothers from a step mother.

Sloka 10. If the 3rd bhava be occupied by benefic planets, the brothers of the person born (say the astrologers) will have long life. If there be malefic planets in the bhava and malefic ones aspect it also, the brothers will die prematurely. The Sun occupying the 3rd bhava and aspected by a malefic planet kills the elder while Rahu in the same bhava adds to the prosperity of the brothers that follow.

अदृश्यराशौ यदि वा सपापे पापयुतदृष्टे सहजाधिनाथे ।

Sloka 14. If the lord of the 3rd bhava occupy an invisible sign or be in the 7th bhava in conjunction with a malefic planet, the person born will have one younger brother and no more. The same will be the case if the lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratru-bhava) occupy a male वर्ग (Varga) in a visible sign and be also in conjunction with a malefic planet.

Sloka 15. If the lord of the 3rd bhava be in a male sign (vide Adhyaya I, Sl. 13), the owner of the horoscope will have a younger brother born after him. If the planet in question should be associated with or aspected by Venus and the Moon in an even sign, or if it occupy a Kendra or Trikona identical with an auspicious sign in conjunction with or aspected by a benefic planet, the after-born brother will be long-lived, healthy and continuously happy.

Sloka 16. If the lord of the 3rd bhava be in the Lagna or in conjunction with its lord, the child born next to the native will be secure from danger. If the 3rd bhava be occupied by its lord, the effect is the same.

Sloka 17. A person may have as many elder born as there are planets in the 11th and the 12th bhavas from the Lagna taken together. The after-born will be as many as the number of planets in the 3rd and the 2nd bhavas from the Lagna.

Sloka 18. The sisters and brothers that a person may have born after him will be as many, at all events, as there are planets in his horoscope conjoined with the lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratrubhava,) its कारक (Karaka), the planet aspecting it and the one occupying it, provided out of these four an account is taken only of those that may predominate in strength. If the four planets already mentioned be depressed, eclipsed or in an inimical sign, their influence will be to do away with every brother or sister as they are born. In case these planets be friendly and possessed of strength, they secure long life to every one of the person's younger brothers and sisters.

Sloka 19. If two out of the 4 planets, viz. the भ्रातृ कारक (Bhratru-karaka), the lord of the 3rd bhava, the planet aspecting the last-mentioned bhava and the one occupying it— if two out of these four planets be strong, their preservative as well as destructive influence on the bhava will be equal. If three of the four planets be strong, they will cause a slight diminution in the number of brothers. If some out of the three strong planets be feminine and occupy bad places, they would add slightly to the number of younger brothers and sisters possible under the other horoscopic conditions and the number of such sister-born will be the number of whole Navamsas traversed by the lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratru-bhava) in the sign it is in.

Sloka 21. The lord of the भ्रातृभाव (Bhratrubhava) and Mars occupying a sign owned by a female planet and capable of causing the birth of brothers and sisters will prove beneficial to the brothers: The same planets occupying a sign belonging to a male planet under the same circumstances will be auspicious to the sisters that the Jataka will have.

Sloka 92. If the 3rd bhava from the Lagna be connected by a female planet (Jnana) or the Moon's, or occupied by a female planet, the person born will have a sister next after himself. If the conditions be otherwise, i.e., the lord of the 3rd bhava or the planet occupying it be male, the person concerned will have a brother born immediately after him.

Sloka 94. Ascertain the Navamsa attained by the four classes of planets explained in the preceding Sloka. Take away from them those amsas that represent depressed, inimical and self-sign Navamsas and double the swakshetra and exaltation Navamsas. The result will represent the number of the after-borns.

Sloka 30. Subtract the figures for the lord of the 3rd bhava from those for the lord of the Lagna. When Saturn arrives at the asterism indicated by the remainder in the above process, the astrologer is to divine the death of a brother or sister of the person born. Again, from the figures obtained above, subtract the figures for the lord of the 10th bhava and Mars. The result indicates the Rasi which when Saturn occupies, a similar event is likely to take place. Thirdly, add the figures for the 4 planets mentioned above; when Saturn occupies the अंश (Amsa) denoted by the aggregate, the same event may happen.

Notes.

भुक्त-भोग्यवती is the reading adopted in preference to भुक्त-भोग्यगते as the 3rd pāda of this sloka.

When Jupiter passes through the sign owning the Drekkana in question, astrologers say, there may be the loss of a brother or sister. Find the asterism indicated by this sum total above referred to. The dasa period of the planet presiding over the star will be greatly productive of happiness and prosperity to the younger brothers.

Sloka 32. Subtract the figures for Rahu from those for Mars. When Jupiter passes through the triangular signs indicated by the remainder, there may be the loss of a younger brother or sister. Subtract the figures for Mars from those for Rahu. When Jupiter passes through the particular Rasi and Navamsa corresponding to the remainder, there may be the loss of an elder brother or sister. Find the Rasi corresponding to the sum total of the figures for the lords of the rising sign at the time of birth or conception and of the 10th bhava. When Jupiter traverses this Rasi, the birth of a younger brother or sister may be expected.

Notes.

In the last pāda the reading in तत्त्वप्रकाश is notably different, viz. स्वस्फुटेनुजजन्मभस्फुटयुते.

Notes.

In this connection compare the following verses in तत्त्वप्रकाश, Slokas 35—37. If the lord of the 3rd bhava be associated with the Sun, the person born will be valiant; if with the Moon, he will be firm-minded; if with Mars, he will be depraved, senseless and irritable; if with Mercury, he will be endowed with an excellent understanding; if with Jupiter, he will be learning on account of his steady virtues and thoroughly conversant with the truths of all the sciences; if with Venus, he will be subject to carnal appetite and will cleverly pursue quarrels and intrigues into which his lustful impulse may lead him; if with Saturn, he will be rapid; if with Rahu, he will be a great coward; and lastly if with Ketu or Mandi, he will suffer from the torpor due to heart-disease and will be outside the pale of other people.

Sloka 68. The lords of the 6th and the 4th bhavas in the 9th bhava produce profligacy in the father. If the lords of the 4th, 9th, 6th and the 1st bhavas be together in one bhava, the person born has been begotten in the mother by one other than her husband.

Slokas 72–73. When the Moon, in the position described in sloka 71, is associated with (1) Rahu or Ketu, the mother intrigues with a low-born person; (2) if with Saturn, the intrigue is with a Sudra; (3) if with Mercury, it is with a Vaisya (4) if with the Sun, the paramour will be a Kshatriya; (5) if with Jupiter or Venus, the lover will be a Brahmin. The Moon associated with Mars and the lord of the 6th bhava in the way described will produce the effect specified in the several cases.

Sloka 137. If the lords of the 2nd and the 4th bhavas occupy, in conjunction with a benefic planet, the 9th bhava (identical with a benefic Rasi, the person born will come by a treasure laid under-ground. Again, if the lords of the 11th and the 2nd bhavas be in the 4th, and the lord of the last-mentioned bhava be in a benefic sign in conjunction with a benefic planet, the acquisition of hidden treasure will be the result. Sloka 1. It is from the 5th bhava that an astrologer should think about a person's tutelary deity, sovereign, son, father, intelligence and religious merit. A pilgrimage has to be guessed with reference to the 7th, the 6th, the 2nd and the 10th bhavas. Any wandering to a far-off place should be ascertained from the 12th bhava. The father's happiness may be known with reference to the 1st and the 4th bhavas and the Sun. The acquisition of children is to be determined in connection with Jupiter and the 5th bhava. The wife's accomplishments, the astrologer may predict through the 7th bhava, the lord of the 2nd and Venus.

Sloka 2. If the 5th bhava from the Lagna be occupied or aspected by a male planet, the person born will adore a male deity. If the 5th bhava be an even Rasi and aspected or occupied by the Moon or Venus, he will prefer to worship a female deity. If the planet aspecting or occupying the 5th bhava be the Sun, the deity worshipped will be the Sun chiefly; if the Moon or Venus, the goddess गौरी (Gouri) will be adored; if Mars, it will be Kartikeya; if Mercury, the object of adoration will be Vishnu; if Jupiter, it will be Siva. If the 5th bhava be in conjunction with or aspected by Saturn or others, viz., Rahu or Ketu, the person will worship other deities.

Notes.

This Sloka explains in general.

The word भाव (Bhava) denotes the 5th bhava. cf. जातकपारि-

Sloka 3. Devotion to the deity indicated by the lord of the 5th bhava leads to the loss of children when the planet is inimical to the lord of the Lagna. If the lord of the 5th bhava be not inimical but more propitious, the effect would be even. But if there would be friendship between the lords of the 5th and the 1st bhavas, he will, by worshipping the deity indicated by the lord of the 5th bhava, secure the infinite grace of that deity.

Sloka 4. If the 5th bhava be occupied or aspected by Jupiter, Mercury and Venus, and if the lord of that bhava be strong, the person born will get into the good graces of his sovereign. But if the 5th bhava be occupied by a malefic planet and its lord being void of strength, occupy a malefic portion of a sign, the person born will be void of learning, education, virtues, intelligence and royal favor.

Sloka 5. If the lord of the 4th bhava be in the Lagna and the lord of the latter occupy the 4th and be aspected by or in conjunction with other planets, the birth of a quadruped will take place. If the planets, aspecting or in conjunction, be Rahu or Ketu, the creature born will be a goat; if those planets be Jupiter, Venus or the Moon, the birth will be of a cow; the creature born will be a buffalo if the planet, aspecting or in conjunction with the lord of the Lagna be Saturn. Sloka 6. If the lords of the 4th and the 4th bhavas occupy the 2nd and the 7th severally or conjointly, and be aspected by or in conjunction with a malefic planet and when a male planet is in a Drekkana owned by a male sign, the creatures born will be monkeys, pigs, cats and the like.

Sloka 7. When the Drekkana referred to in the preceding sloka is aspected by Saturn and Mercury, the birth will be somewhere in the form of a lump or a round mass. If Jupiter in conjunction with Rahu be united there and be aspected by a weak planet the person born will be of the Brahmana caste and will stoop to do vile acts not becoming his birth. If Jupiter, Rahu and Saturn be united there and be aspected by Venus and Mercury, the person born though a Sudra will attain to equality with a Brahmin, and as a twice-born will receive instruction in every science.

Sloka 8. A person can have prosperity (sons, wife, etc.), according as the 5th or the 7th house calculated from the Lagna or the Moon at the time of his birth is occupied or aspected by a benefic planet or by its lord; if otherwise, he can have no son or wife. If, when the Sun occupies Virgo identical with the rising sign, Saturn is in Pisces, the latter planet will cause the death of his wife. And Mars in the 5th house in the previous yoga brings about the death of the son.

NOTES.

This sloka has been taken from सारावली (Sārāvalī).

If the ruler of the 5th house is placed in the 5th or the 7th bhava from the Lagna, it will bring all kinds of prosperity. The same holds good for the Moon. This is one interpretation. Here शुभ (Śubha) is taken to mean the 9th house.

General interpretation. If Jupiter, the Master of Mantras (ज्ञानं वृद्धिः—Śubhānāṃ jantu) is placed in the 5th or the 7th house from the Lagna or the Moon, the yoga causes also every kind of prosperity.

Third interpretation. If planets ruling the रन्ध्राणि (Randhrasthānas, viz., places other than the 3rd, the 6th, the 8th and the 12th) be placed in the 5th and 7th houses from the Lagna or the Moon, then also prosperity is indicated.

Fourth interpretation. If the ruler of the house occupied by Venus be placed in the 5th or 7th bhava from the Lagna or the Moon, it leads to prosperity. Here शुक्रयुक् (Śukrayuk) is split up into शु (Śu)=शुक्र (Śukra), क् (Ka)=कवि (Kavi) and युक् (Yuk)=युज् (Yuj).

Another view. If the ruler of nakshatra occupied by Venus be placed in the 5th or the 7th from the Lagna or the Moon, then also prosperity is indicated. (The rulers of Nakshatras are according to विंशोत्तरी—Vimsottari System).

In all the above interpretations, the planet or planets concerned may take the role of aspecting instead of occupying.

In the absence of the above yogas, the wife is also to be unhappy.

If Virgo is to rise with the Sun in it and Saturn be in Pisces, the native will kill many wives. If Virgo is to rise with Mars in Capricorn, such a person will lose many sons who are born.

It may however be asked "Why does Saturn in Pisces with the Sun in Virgo as Lagna kill wives?" The answer is: Saturn as ruler of the 8th, in the 7th and in opposition to the ruler of the 12th is bad. To be more explicit, the rulers of bad houses should not be in Subha Sthanas [शुभस्थान] or good houses.

The Sun and Saturn in opposition will indicate more than one wife especially in dual signs.

Mars in the 5th may be good for finance; but it is certainly bad for issues and will always kill children.

भौमः पञ्चमगस्तैक्ये वाहे गते प्रियासप्तमि सुतम् ।
वृद्धे मृत्युः मध्यमे त्रिंशेन्द्रे न चेन्मेषोदयः ॥

Mars coming into the first portion of the 5th Bhava will kill the first son; coming into the middle portion, he will kill the middle son, and if he comes into the last portion, he will kill the latter issues. Further, Mars will always kill children between the ages of 1 and 3 years. (cf. एकत्रीन्द्रियेति etc., Jātaka Pārijāta—Ch. VIII, Sl. 9. According to this principle, the Moon rules for the first year and Mars rules for the next two years. Therefore children will be killed अष्टमेन मेषगतेन by Mars.)

कल्याणवर्मा (Kalyāṇa Varmā), the author of सारावली (Sārāvalī), says that there are 12 kinds of pairs which a person may be destined to have. They are (1) सोदर (Sodara) a son born to a lawfully married wife; (2) औरस (Aurasa), a son that is born to a wife through a brother or other kinsman of her husband duly appointed to raise up issue for him; (5) दत्त (Datta), one that has been received as a gift from his natural parents for being adopted; (6) क्रीत (Krīta), one that has been purchased for purposes of the continuance of the family; (7) कृत्रिम (Kṛitrima), a grown-up son adopted without the consent of his natural parents; (8) अनपसृत (Anapasṛitabandhu), an offspring born to a low-caste woman through a Brahmin; (9) गूढोत्पन्न (Gūḍhotpanna), a son born secretly of a woman when her husband is absent, the real father being unknown; (10) अपविद्ध (Apaviddha), a son that is abandoned by the father or mother or by both, and adopted by a stranger; (11) पौनर्भव (Paunarbhava), a son of a widow remarried; (12) सहोढ (Sahoḍha), the son of an unmarried woman; (13) कानीन (Kānīna), the son of an unmarried woman; (14) सौदायिक (Saudāyika), the son of a woman pregnant at marriage; (15) दासीपुत्र (Dāsīputra), the son of a female slave. The particular kind of son that one may get is thus denoted in Nirayana.

तिलराशिगे भौमे लग्ने दृष्टेऽथवापि रंध्रस्थे ।
प्रायेण कन्यकाः स्युः शशिराशिगणेऽपि नाल्पगा सुताः ॥

Such of those as whose horoscopes the 5th house as occupied or aspected by benefic planets or in itself an auspicious sign (being owned by benefics) will certainly be blessed with one or other of the kinds of sons described above. If it be otherwise, there will be no issue.

If the 5th house, counted either from the Lagna or the Moon is otherwise a stranger, happen to be a Varga of Jupiter and should also be a benefic sign or be aspected by benefic planets, the person concerned will have an elder (surviving) son.

The number of sons that a person may have is that signified by the number of benefic Navamsas that have occupied the 5th house. This number will be doubled if the house be also aspected by benefics. The number fixed will be ascertained through the number of benefic Navamsas traversed, and the number will have doubled if the Bhava be also aspected by malefics. Also Cf. XIII—46, 47, infra.

If the 5th house belong to a Varga of Saturn and be aspected by Mercury but not by Jupiter, Mars or the Sun, the person concerned will have a पुत्र (Kshetraja) son. The same will be the case if the house in question belong to a Varga of Mercury, be aspected by Saturn and be at the same time devoid of the aspect of Jupiter, Mars or the Sun.

If Saturn should own the 5th house and also occupy it and if the Moon should aspect the said house, the person concerned will get a मृत (Untimely) son. If Mercury should take the role of Saturn in the above yoga the native will get a मृत (Stillborn) son.

If the 5th house with Saturn in it be in the Saptamsa of Mars and be not be aspected by any of the benefic planets, the person concerned will get a मृत (Untimely) son.

If the 5th house be in a Varga of Saturn or be occupied by the Sun, with the aspect of Mars on it, the son of the person concerned will be an अतिक्रूर (Ati-cruel-nature).

If the Moon should occupy the 5th house in house of Mars and be aspected by Saturn and not by any of the other planets, the son of the person concerned will be a दुर्बुद्धि (Feebleminded).

If Mars occupy the 5th house identical with the Varga of Saturn and be aspected by the Sun, the person concerned will get a son of the अधीत (Ajnanabdha) class; no doubt on this score.

The son of a person will be शिशु (Immaturity) when, in his nativity, the Moon is in the 5th house in a Varga of Saturn and in conjunction with that planet, and is also aspected by Venus and the Sun.

If the 5th house be in the Saptamsa of the Sun and be occupied or aspected by him, the son of the person concerned will be a चपल (Nonsense).

If the 5th house belong to a Varga of the Sun or the Moon and be occupied by the Moon or the Sun respectively and if the Bhava be at the same time aspected by Venus, the native will have a son of the मति (Sobering) class.

If the 5th house being a malefic sign be occupied by fiery or cruel malefics in opposite and hostile quarters, the person concerned will not have any sons.

If the 5th house happens to be in the Navamsa of Venus and has the aspect of that planet on it, the issues will be of this description (Daityaprabhava) class. Some say that the same should be predicted through the Moon also; i.e., when the 5th house is in the Navamsa of the Moon and is also aspected by that planet.

If the 5th bhava being in a Varga of Venus or the Moon be at the same time aspected or occupied by these planets, the issues will generally be daughters. The same will be the case if the vigrahasankhya (Varga) in question be even. Otherwise, the issues will be all sons.

The author of Sanvali gives some details regarding one's male issues:—

Sloka 9. When the lord of the 5th bhava or of the 9th from the Lagna occupies the 7th bhava or an even Rasi and is aspected by or in conjunction with the Moon or Venus, a good number of daughters would be born. If the two planets referred to above occupy a male varga and be aspected by or in conjunction with male planets, the number of children born will contain a majority of sons. The question of obtaining issues, an astrologer must propound, with reference to Jupiter and the 5th bhava.

Mallabhatta takes भौमात्सप्तमे, according to the last pāda of the sloka to mean "from the 5th place reckoned from Jupiter" and quotes the following :

जीवलग्नस्य राशेः पञ्चमे पापसंयुते ।

Thus as well as the next six slokas are of doubtful.

Sloka 10. If the 5th bhava from the Lagna be a varga of Venus or the Moon and be aspected or occupied by either of them, and if at the same time no malefic planets be in the bhava, the person born will have many children. But if Saturn and Mars should aspect the 5th bhava, he will be bereft of children.

A person will have a grandson if the 7th-place from the 5th bhava be in the Rasi and Amsa of a benefic planet, or if the lord of the 7th place aforesaid be aspected by or in conjunction with a benefic planet and occupy a Kendra or a Trikona. If the lord of the 5th bhava be in Svarksetra (Swakshetra), the person born will not have many sons. If the planet owning the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the 5th bhava be in his own Navamsa, the astrologer may give out that the person concerned will have but one son.

Malefic planets in the 8th, the 6th and the 12th places from the 8th bhava bring the family to extinction. Rahu occupying the 5th bhava and the lord thereof in a quadrant (Dusthanam) will cause the death of children. If the lord of the Lagna be in the 5th and the lord of the latter in the 1st bhava, the person concerned will adopt a son.

Notes

For the 1st line (Pada) of this sloka consider the following from भावदीपिका

Find the vargas of the planet occupying the Rasi representing the 5th bhava and also those of the Karaka of the same. Find again which of the several Rasis to which these vargas belong are unoccupied by planets; from some one of the class of people indicated by these Rasis will the person concerned adopt a son

If the lord of the 5th bhava be in conjunction with Kuja, the son born in the Bhukti (भुक्ति) of the former will be short-lived while the one born in the भुक्ति (Bhukti) of Kuja in the same yoga will attain long life.

Sloka 15. If the lords of the 5th and the 2nd bhavas be weak and if malefic planets aspect the 5th bhava, the person born even when he has many wives will certainly have no children. But if his wife be born under a yoga which makes a son possible and if the 5th bhava be aspected by a benefic planet or the lord of the 6th place from the 5th bhava, she will become the mother of a son by a paramour.

The number of women should be determined by a consideration of (1) the planets in the 5th house or those that are position-wise with the lord of the 5th house, as to how many of them are in friendly, exaltation or mulatrikona Navamsas. Sloka 47. Leaving out the figures indicating the number of signs in the bhavas to be mentioned below, multiply the degrees, minutes, etc. in each, converted into minutes, by the figure (in Virupas) representing the benefic aspect and divide the products by 60 and again by 200. The results arrived at in respect to the 5th, the 3rd, the 7th, the 1st and the 4th bhavas respectively represent the number of sons, brothers, wives, mentals whether male or female, and friends that the owner of the horoscope is to have. The figures got similarly from malefic aspect on the several bhavas above-mentioned indicate the number of sons and others that will be lost.

Sloka 48. Add the correct figures for the lords of the 5th and the 1st bhavas, and find out the Rasi and the amsa the sum represents. When Jupiter passes through this and its triangular positions, there is a possibility of a son being born. Again, take the sum of the figures for Jupiter, the Moon and the Sun, and ascertain the Rasi and the Navamsa the sum represents. The number of the Navamsas obtained give the number of issues of the person concerned. Two more alternative methods for ascertaining this number are; (1) add the figures of the lords of the 5th, the 9th and the 4th bhavas and ascertain, as in the above case, the number of past Navamsas in the Rasi found. This will be the number required: (2) add the figures of the planets if any in the 5th, the 9th and the 4th bhavas. The number of children will be the number of elapsed Navamsas in the Rasi found.

NOTES.

The following from कल्याणवर्मा gives a clue to conception, when conception may be possible:

चन्द्रभुक्तौ स्वगृहांशेऽर्कक्षेत्रांशपयर्यायौ पुंसाम् ।
क्षीणां शे कुजभ-क्षौ यद्वा तद्वा क्षेपसि गर्भः ॥

Conception (of a birth) may take place when the Sun and Venus in the case of males, Mars and the Moon in the case of females being possessed of strength pass through their Rasis or Navamsas identical with an अपम (Apachaya) place.

जीवाब्जेन्दुलग्नेभ्यो धिष्ण्यभवनात् पुत्रगतं पञ्चमं
यद्राद्यंशगतं च तत्पतिदशाभुक्तौ प्रजामादिशेत् ।
पुत्रस्थानपकामपस्फुटयुते षष्ठारिक्ष यद्दशा

Sloka 49. The 5th and the 9th bhavas from Jupiter, the Moon and the Lagna are child-producing. During the dasa and bhukti of the lord of a child-producing bhava, the astrologer may predict the accession of a child. Add the figures for the lords of the 5th and the 7th bhavas, and ascertain the star indicated by the total. Its dasa yields a son. The dasa as well as its bhukti of a planet which either aspects or is in conjunction with the lord of the 5th or the 7th bhava will prove to be child-producing.

Notes.

This as well as the next one are to illustrate.

The following additional information from कल्याणवर्मा about (Putrabhava) 5th bhava will be found to be interesting :

शीतेन्दुसितसूर्यकुजैक्यफले सुते न युग्मांशके
स्त्रीणां क्षेत्रबलं वदन्ति सुतदं विप्रेऽन्यथाऽफलम् ।
भास्वन्मन्दकुजैक्यपुंस्कफलयोर्युग्मोडुनाथेऽथवा
पुंसां क्षीणफले सुतप्रदमिदं मिश्रे तु मिश्रं फलम् ॥

Add together the figures representing the positions of Jupiter, the Moon and Mars or the cause of female fecundity. If the result denotes an even Rasi and an even Navamsa, the strength of fecundity in the female for producing offsprings is assured. If it is mixed (i.e., Rasi male and Amsa female, or vice-versa), there will be children only after a great effort. If the sum total of the figures denoting the positions of the Sun, Venus and Jupiter signify an odd Rasi and an odd Navamsa, it denotes that the virility in the male to produce offspring is very strong, and in case one of the two (Rasi and Navamsa) be even, one has to predict a mixed result.

षष्ठाच्छशिनः स्फुटादिशुक्रे भानुस्फुटे क्षीणयोः—
क्षीत्वा लग्नं तिथिं तिथेः क्षुगणितैः पूर्वोक्तवत्साधिते ।
कुर्ष्णे नाडिं सुतक्षितेर्बलवशाद्ब्रूयात् क्षयोः पक्षयोः
दृष्टे क्षिप्तिथौ च मिश्रिकरणं न स्यात् स्थिरास्थे सुतः ॥

Subtract five times the figures for the Sun from five times the figures for the Moon. If the Tithi represented by the result be an auspicious one in the bright half of a month, pregnancy is assured to the native (even) without much exertion. But if it be one of the dark half of the month there is no such possibility. It is by a close examination of the strength of the Tithi—whether it is auspicious or otherwise—in both the Pakshas—bright and dark—that one has to divine the possibility of the native being blessed with issues. During an Amavasya, a Tithi (Chhidra) Tithi, the Nakshatra (Rikta) Karana, or any one of the five Kalamukha there will be no issue at all.

"Chhidra Tithis are (1) चतुर्थी (Chaturthi), (2) षष्ठी (Shashti), (3) अष्टमी (Ashtami), (4) नवमी (Navami), (5) द्वादशी (Dwadashi), and (6) चतुर्दशी (Chaturdasi). These six are generally avoided for any auspicious function.

There are 11 Karanas distributed over the 30 Tithis of the Lunar month at the rate of 2 Karanas for each Tithi. Four of these viz. (1) Chatushpatcha, (2) Nagava, (3) Kimsthughna and (4) Sakuna are called (Sthira) Karanas and are so named as they permanently hold sway over the four half Tithis commencing from the 2nd half of Krishnachaturdashi Chaturdasi. The other seven viz., (1) Bava, (2) Balava, (3) Kaulava, (4) Taitula, (5) Garija, (6) Vanija and (7) Vishti or Bhadra are called Chara or movable Karanas and occur in 8 cycles to preside over the remaining 56 half Tithis of the lunar month beginning with the latter half of Sukladwitiya Pratipada.

Should however the result happen to be one of the children (Putra) Tithis, like Pita (Vishti) Karana or a Fire (Sthira) Karana alluded to in the previous sloka), one ought to worship God Krishna by means of the Purusha Sukta mantras to ward off the barrenness threatening the family. If the Tithi disclosed be Shashti, he ought to worship God Subrahmanya; if it be Chaturthi, he ought to propitiate the Lord of serpents; if it be Navami, he ought to prepare for the reading of Ramayana and hear that story; if it be Ashtami, he ought to observe the Sravana Vrata (by fasting); if it be Chaturdasi, he must worship God Siva by Rudrapasupata; if it be Dwadasi he must propitiate the Gods by liberal feeding; if it be Amavasya or Pournami, he ought to propitiate the Manes. These things he ought to do all the more and with greater care and effort when the Tithi happens to be one among the last five of the month—viz. after कृष्णचतुर्थी. Generally in the dark half of a month to whichsoever of the three divisions a Tithi may belong, worship ought to be resorted to; the particular deity to be propitiated being Nagaraja in the first division (viz. 2—5 Tithis), Skanda in the second (viz. 5 Tithis viz. 6—10) and Hari in the third (viz. last 5).

He ought to divine the source of the same by an examination of the particular deity, tree and animal represented by the sign occupied by that planet.

If the planet in question happens to be the Sun, the person concerned becomes useless owing to injury done to God Siva and Garuda and the consequent curse of the Mother. It will be due to the displeasure and anger of the mother, a Sadhvi or other venerable woman or Goddess Bhagawati owing to her feelings having been hurt; In the case of Mars, it will be due to some fault done to the village deity, to God Kartikeya, to ant enemy or one's servants; if the planet be Mercury, the misfortune will be due to curses made by youngsters or to the killing of the animals (eggs of fishes and similar creatures) or to the wrath of God Vishnu; if Jupiter be afflicted, it will be due to some harm done to the hereditary Brahmin family-priest or the destruction (cutting asunder) of a tree full of fruits; if the lord of the 5th or the planet posited therein be Venus, the cause of child-lessness will be due to the cutting off of a tree full of flowers, or the injury caused to a virtuous lady or to the cow kind or a sinful deed to people that ought to be revered; if Saturn be the planet under reference, it will be due to the destruction of an aśvattha (Aswattha) tree or on account of Vanas'ūra or through departed Spirits, Goblins and the like; if Rāhu should occupy the 5th house or be associated with the lord of that house, it will be due to the curse of a serpent; in the case of Ketu, it will be owing to the curse of a Brahmin. If it be Mandi, it will be due to a curse from departed Spirits. If Venus and the Moon in conjunction with Mandi should be in such a position, the cause will be attributed to the murder of a damsel or the killing of a cow. Notes.

It is not clear whether by the word पितृस्थान the 5th or the 9th bhava is meant. Parasara says "पितरि ज्ञेयो नवमे शुभे". The aspecting stake of the present Adhyaya gives पितृ as fixed or ascertainable from the 5th bhava. Accordingly interpret पितृस्थान as the 5th bhava here being germane to the Adhyaya bearing on the 5th bhava. The slokas 32-37 occur in जन्मदीपिका under the 9th bhava. So पितृस्थान must mean the 5th as well as the 9th bhava.

पितृर्मृतिर्वोत्तरमार्गगेऽर्के न शेषयः पापदृशा समेते ॥

This sloka applies to लग्नलग्न.

I should think that the three planets viz., Saturn, Mars and Rahu should all be posited in one or other of the two bhavas or in both so bring about the effect. Two alone will not be able to produce the fateful effect. Similar remark applies to the yoga given in the second part of the sloka.

सप्तमे पितृमावेशे सप्तमेशेऽष्टमचतुर्थपाः ।
दुर्बला यदि तन्मातुर्मरणं विदुः ॥ ५९ ॥

Sloka 59. If the lord of the 9th bhava be strong, and the lords of the 8th and the 4th bhavas and the Moon be weak, the mother of the person born will die

नवपाद्दृमाधीशो नवमात् खरंध्रपा ।
यनिर्वेधेषु पः क्रूरः संभवेत् पितृमृत्युदः ॥ ६० ॥

Sloka 60. When Saturn being the lord of the 8th bhava or रन्ध्र (Khara), both reckoned from the 9th bhava, happens to be malefic in वेध (Vedha) positions,[1] the planet will cause the death of the father.

Notes.

A knowledge of गोचरफल (Gochara phala—effect of transits) is a prerequisition precedent to the understanding of the term वेध (Vedha) used in the sloka.

It is a well-known theory that the movements of planets in the zodiac from moment to moment signify good or evil. This is the basis on which the Transit System rests. As the physical and mental qualities and the chief events in the life and career of the native could be foretold by a reference to the position of the planets and the Lagna at the time of birth, similarly, any changes in the prospects and conditions of life of the individual at any required time may be ascertained by a reference to the person's Janma Rasi (नामराशि) and the configuration of planets at that time. Thus it is said that when the Sun during his transit comes through the 3rd, the 6th, the 10th and the 11th houses reckoned from the house occupied by the Moon at birth, success, sum of enemies, pains of labour and pecuniary gains respectively are the results to be predicted. But there is one thing to be noted in this connection. These results will happen only if the corresponding वेध (Vedha) sign in each case is left unoccupied by any planet at the time of consideration. If there should be a planet in the Vedha position, he tries to nullify the original effect that would otherwise result, may, even bring about a quite contrary effect should he happen to be strong at that time.

What these वेध (Vedha) positions are will be clear from the following श्लोक from ज्योतिषतत्त्वरत्नाकर:

रवि: पृथ्वी गो नीलवस्त्राण्यन्नं हयमुनि: ।
शशी मातङ्गगोस्थारसना सुखमुग्गतै: ॥

[1] i.e.

कुजः प्रागस्तगोविंधत्रीधनवेश्मकुटुम्बगोः ।
बुधः स्वं मित्र गोऽष्टिन्धुत्रीयद्यन्त्यस्वसुतगैः ॥
जीवः कार्यत्रयासूनौ गोऽष्टमेनवमस्वसुतगैः ।
शुक्रो हिबुकसप्तधर्मी रन्ध्रान्त्यमोगतो गदैः ॥
क्षेत्रत्रयाष्टगैर्निगौ न वेधः सितभूसुतयोः ॥

For the benefit of the readers, the six (Vedha) positions have been indicated in the table subjoined :

Vedha or signs reckoned from the house of the Moon.

Planets	I	II	III	IV	V	VI	VII	VIII	IX	X	XI	XII
Sun	3	2	9	3	6	12	7	8	10	4	5	11
Mars	3	1	9	3	6	12	1	7	10	4	5	11
Mercury	1	2	12	5	4	9	6	9	8	10	5	11
Venus	2	5	4	3	2	9	0	1	6	10	12	11
Jupiter	1	12	2	5	4	6	3	7	10	9	8	11
Saturn	6	7	1	10	9	12	3	5	11	4	3	6

There is no Ve (Vedha) between the father and the son. Consequently, (1) the Moon and Mercury, (2) the Sun and Saturn do not affect each other through Vedha.

Make for example the nativity referred to on p. 657. The Moon at birth is in Aleona. Suppose it is required to find out if the Sun's Moksa through Makara on January-February 1933 will prove propitious. Makara happens to be the 11th from Meena (the Lunar Rasi), the Vedha Kha for the Sun is the 5th from Makara (the Lunar Rasi). This is not occupied by any planet. So the good effects will presumably accrue to the Sun's transit thro' Makara the 11th house from the Moon will happen in their entirety. Similar is the case with the other planets.

दिनेशस्थितराश्यंशयोर्बलिनः कोणगे रवौ ।
पितुर्मरणमीक्षेत्सूक्ष्मेन्दुस्थांशर्क्षयोर्बलात् ॥ ६१ ॥

Sloka. 61. Examine the strength of the Rasi as well as the amsa occupied by the Sun. Find the stronger of these two. When the Sun occupies a Kona position from these, the father's death may be expected. By a similar process ascertain whether the Rasi or the amsa occupied by the Moon is stronger. The mother's death may be predicted with reference thereto, i.e. when the Sun passes through the Kona of the amsa or Rasi that is stronger.

भानुस्थितांशराश्यंशनवांशाद्दशमम् ।
गते चन्द्रे भवेत्सूक्ष्मतिथिर्योगेशाङ्कमम् ॥ ६२ ॥

Sloka. 62. Find the lord of the Navamsa occupied by the Sun. Find next the Navamsa and Dwadasamsa occupied by the planet found. When the Moon passes through the Navamsa and Dwadasamsa found, the deaths respectively of the mother and father will take place.

दुष्टस्थानगते भानौ सिंहान्त्यद्वादशांशके ।
जातश्चेज्जननात्पूर्वं पितृमृत्युं प्रयच्छति ॥ ६३ ॥

Sloka. 63. If, when the Sun occupies a [illegible], a person has his birth in the Dwadasamsa of Simha or Meena he must have caused the death of his father prior to coming into the world.

Notes.

For the same effect the following is another yoga quoted in Jataka.

सीरे शशाङ्के तद्भगनवकुजे मृदुचरिते नन्दगृहे गुरेऽस्ते ।
चिकित्सके पापखगैरुत सौम्यैः प्रतीच प्रचुरा भूलाभिलाषाः ॥
गार्हाण्डे शुक्लिफस्फुटादपतौ राशिस्त्रिकोणे धनौ
रोगं तज्जनकस्य देवसचिवे मृत्युस्तदंशोदये ।
आदित्यं चमवाण्टकस्फुटयुते तद्राशिकोणे शुरौ
रोगं तज्जनकोशकेऽमरगुरौ तातस्य नाशं वदेत् ॥ ६४ ॥

Note. 64. Subtract the figures for the Sun from those for Mandi. The result will indicate a certain Rasi and amsa. When Saturn passes through the Kona of the Rasi found, the father of the person concerned will fall ill; death will supervene when Jupiter passes through the amsa found already. Add the figures for Yamakantaka to those for the Sun. The result will give a certain Rasi and a Navamsa. When Jupiter passes through that Rasi or its Trikona, the father of the person concerned will fall ill; and he will die when Jupiter passes through the amsa found.

Notes.

This sloka appears in मानसागर. The Sed ग्रह there reads thus;

खार्किले गमवलयकस्फुटयुते राशित्रिकोणे शनौ ॥
केन्द्रे चरेऽर्के चन्द्रे वा पितरौ न दहेत् सुतः ।
केन्द्रे स्थिरेऽर्के शशी चेत् सूर्यमृद्दाहौ भिन्नकालौ ॥ ६५ ॥

Sloka. 65. When the Sun or the Moon occupies a Kendra in a movable sign, the son will not burn the father's or mother's corpse himself. If the Sun or the Moon occupying a Kendra be in a fixed sign, the death and burning will not be in the same period of time.

cf. सर्वार्थचिन्तामणि

Sloka. 66. If the lords of the 9th and the 4th bhavas be in the invisible part of the zodiac, it will not be the good fortune of the person concerned to see the face of his parents in their last movements. If the lord of the 5th bhava be in the invisible portion of the hemisphere, the person concerned will not see his son's face at the moment of his death.

Sloka. 67. If the lord of the 6th bhava occupy a दृश्यभाग or be in the invisible portion of the hemisphere, the person born will have a rather dull understanding. But if the planet in question be associated with Mercury or Jupiter in a Kendra or Kona position and have strength, the person born will be intelligent and capable of shrewdly guessing the thoughts of others (by their gestures and other expressive signs).

त्रिकालज्ञो भवेज्जन्मे लग्ने सूर्यांशसंयुते ।

Sloka. 68. A person becomes cognisant of the past, the present and the future when Jupiter is (1) in his own Navamsa and has attained the benefic Shashtyamsa सूर्य (Mridu); or (2) has attained Gopura and other higher Vaiseshikamsas and (3) occupies a benefic Navamsa and is aspected by a benefic planet.

हृद्रोगी पञ्चमे पापे सपापे च दृगाश्रिते ।
चन्द्रपुत्रांशसंयुक्ते शुभदृग्योगवर्जिते ॥ ६९ ॥

Sloka. 69. When malefic planets occupy the 6th and the 4th bhavas and when the former bhava is in a malefic Shashtyamsa without being aspected by or in conjunction with benefic planets, the person born will suffer from heart-disease.

अन्नदानपरो नित्यं पञ्चमेशे शुभांशके ।
शुभखेटयुतेक्षे भूमिजे केन्द्रसंस्थिते ॥ ७० ॥

Sloka. 70. When the lord of the 5th bhava is in a benefic amsa and Mars occupying a Kendra is in conjunction with benefic planets, the person born will ever devote himself to the duties of hospitality and the relief of the hungry and the famished.

Sloka 71. An astrologer ought to divine diseases, enemies, bad habits and hurts that a person may have, from the 6th bhava and Mars. What relates to diseases has been treated already (Vide Adhyayas V. & VI). When Jupiter is in the 6th bhava, the person concerned will overcome his enemies. If the lord of the 6th bhava and Mercury be in conjunction with Rahu and connected in some way with the lord of the Lagna, the person concerned will be impotent. Mars occupying the 6th bhava together with lord of the Lagna will produce damage to the organ of generation by an ulcer.

If Mars occupying the 6th bhava be aspected by Saturn, he will have a liaison with an enemy's wife. If the 6th bhava be either aspected or occupied by benefic planets, there is no danger to be dreaded from enemies; if aspected or occupied by malefic ones, there will be a good deal of hurt or other damage inflicted by an enemy, danger from ulcers or some mark of ignominy put upon the person concerned.

If Venus be similarly situated, the consequence will be sore-eyes. Saturn as well as Rahu in the position above described produce flatulence, and Ketu, disease of the stomach. The lord of the Lagna aspected by or associated with Mercury and occupying a sign belonging to the same planet (in the 6th bhava) generates an ulcer in the privities.

Sloka 3. When the lords of the 2nd, the 8th and the 7th bhavas and Venus occupy the Lagna and are associated with malefic planets, the person born will be libidinous. It is through the (number of) planets in the 7th house that one ought to divine the number of wives that a person may associate with. Of these, the number that will die (at an early age) will correspond to the number (of planets in the 7th house) that are malefic, while the number of benefic will denote the number that will survive. If the lord of the 7th be benefic and possessed of strength, the native will have a good natured woman as his partner and be endowed with many children. Even a malefic will do good to the wife if he shall be in the 7th owning that house. Benefics in the 7th will be productive of good unless they happen to be the lords of the 6th, 8th and 12th houses.

Śloka 27. Add together the figures for the lords of the Lagna and the 7th bhava. Find the Rasi, etc., indicated by the result. When Jupiter traverses the Rasi, etc., above found, the astrologer may predict a person's marriage. The time of marriage may also be determined in the same way in respect to the total of the figures for the rulers of the stars occupied by the Moon and the lord of the 7th bhava. If the Navamsa occupied by Jupiter belong to a friend, the person concerned will have but one wife. If the amsa in question be Jupiter's own, the number of wives will be 2 or 3. If the amsa be that of Jupiter's exaltation, the person concerned will be the lord of many wives.

Notes.

According to फलदीपिका the probable time for marriage is thus ascertained:

शुक्रोऽस्तगो वा नवमांशकस्थितोगतायाति रतः प्रियाद्यः ॥

During the Dasa and Bhukti of one of these, marriage may take place.

Notes.

It is perhaps implied here that each succeeding alternative is to be resorted to when the preceding one is found to be not promising because of the weakness etc., of the planet concerned.

Sloka 30. If the planet powerful for producing marriage be benefic and in a benefic house, it will bring on the happy event at the commencement of its Dasa. If the planet, being itself benefic, should occupy a malefic house, the marriage and other such happy events will take place in the middle of its Dasa. If the planet and the house it occupies be both malefic, the event in question will happen at the end of its Dasa. But if the planet in question occupy a benefic house and be in conjunction with a benefic planet at the same time, its influence for good will prevail during the whole of its Dasa period.

[Sloka 31. Astrologers say that the acquisition of a wife may take place when the Moon and Jupiter in their progress arrive at the good place from the lord of the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the Lagna at the birth of the person concerned. The same event may also happen when Jupiter reaches a sign occupied by the lord of the 7th bhava or Venus. A third possibility is when the Moon and Jupiter occupy a Kendra.

Sloka 32. An auspicious time for men's marriage (other than what has been mentioned before) occurs in the year of their life indicated by the number made up of 8 and the figure denoting the order from Mesha of the sign representing the 7th bhava: this year being in the nature of things subsequent to the investiture with the sacred thread generally preceding marriage (in the case of the twice born class). Add the figures for the lords of the 7th and the 1st bhavas and find out the Rasi and Amsa indicated by the sum total. The girl born in the Rasi and Amsa thus found is the one to win the heart of the person concerned. The husband-elect must equally prove acceptable to the wife.

Sloka 33. Note the planets occupying or aspecting the 7th bhava from the Moon. A girl born in a sign belonging to any one of these planets will be highly fortunate as a wife and enjoy her husband's favor. A husband determined similarly in the case of a female horoscope will prove acceptable. The direction of the 7th, the 4th or the 8th bhava in the horoscope of a person may cause the death of his wife. If Mars occupy the same position in respect to the horoscope of the wife to be selected, that planet will prove injurious to the husband.

Sloka 25. If a malefic planet occupying the 8th bhava from the Lagna in a female horoscope be in depression, inimical or malefic vargas, it proves fatal to the husband.

Sloka 26. If there be malefic planets in the 2nd as well as in the 7th bhava, they cause distress by bringing about a bereavement of the wife. If the person concerned be joined in wedlock to a woman born in a yoga such as has been described above, he lives possessed of children, wealth and other blessings.

Sloka 27. If the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of the wife be included in the rasi designated कलत्रराशि (Kalatrarasi) or in the trangular signs of the Rasi occupied by the lord of the 7th bhava in the horoscope of the husband, the latter will have sons. If the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of the wife be other than those that have been enumerated, he will have no issue by her.

Notes.

For जन्मराशिनिका. Cf. मानसागरी:

Great astrologers have recognised the Rasi occupied by the lord of the 7th bhava in the husband's horoscope as the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of his wife. The exaltation and the depression signs of the lord of the 7th bhava in the male horoscope as well as the Rasi of the 7th bhava form the constituent parts of the triad representing the जन्मराशि (Janmarasi) of the कलत्र (Kalatra) or wife.

Sloka 28. If the Sun be in the 7th bhava, the wife will have breasts exceedingly strong. When the lord of the 7th bhava occupies a Kendra in conjunction with Jupiter, the Moon, Mercury or Venus, she will have a broad and swelling bosom; if Mars appear in the 7th bhava, her bosom will be shrunken. If the 7th bhava be occupied by Mandi, Saturn, Rahu or Ketu she will have fat pendent breasts. If Dhuma and other invisible planets be in the 7th bhava or if the lord thereof occupy a दुस्थान (Dusthana), her breasts will be all-shapen.

Sloka 29. If the Sun be in the 7th bhava at a person's birth, the object of his love and dalliance will be a barren woman; if the Moon, a woman of the same class as himself; if Mars, it will be a woman in menstruation or a barren wedded wife; if Mercury, a courtezan; if Jupiter, a woman of Brahmanic extraction; if Venus, he will have a liaison with a woman already enceinte. If the planet occupying the 7th bhava be Saturn, Rahu or Ketu, the object of his affections will be a low-born female or one in her periods.

Sloka 41. If Mars occupy a Navamsa owned by Venus in the 7th bhava, and if the lord of that bhava be in the 6th, the person born will suffer bereavement in the death of his wedded wife. If the planet occupying the 7th bhava be the Sun, he will be blessed with wife and wealth. If the lords of the 2nd and the 7th bhavas be associated with Venus in a दुस्थान (Dusthana) or in the 3rd bhava, he will have the ill-luck to lose so many wives; but if the lords of those bhavas be strong, his wife will continue alive during his life-time.

Sloka 43. If the lord of the 7th bhava be aspected by or associated with Venus, or occupy a house owned by the latter, the person born will be so extravagantly fond of his wife as to indulge in भगसुम्भन (Bhagachumbana.) The effect is the same when the lord of the 2nd bhava is in the same position as that described for the lord of the 7th in the preceding case; or when the lord of the 10th occupies the 7th in conjunction with Venus.

Sloka 45. A man is joined to a woman when Jupiter is in a Rasi belonging to the planet owning the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the Lagna at his birth; but if the Navamsa in question belong to the depression sign of the lord of the Lagna or to its enemy, the person concerned will lose the wife that he marries or have no wife at all. Subtract the figures for the Lagna from those for the lord of the 7th bhava. The difference indicates a certain Rasi. When Jupiter occupies this Rasi or its Trikona, astrologers say that the death of the person's wife will take place. The same event may happen when Jupiter is in a Rasi indicated by the excess of the figures for the Lagna over those for the lord of the 7th bhava.

7th place from the Lagna and if this 7th place be predominant in strength and unaspected by or unassociated with malefic planets, the wife dies simultaneously with the husband. Her death will occur during the period of the दशा or अपहार (Apahara) of a छिद्र (Chidra) planet (vide Adhyaya 6, slokas 52–53) with reference to the 7th bhava, when Saturn occupies the Rasi ascertained to be fatal to the wife through the Ashtakavarga of Venus (vide Adhyaya 10) and when Jupiter is in a Navamsa owned by this fatal Rasi.

Sloka 48. From what has been said already, it is possible to ascertain the allotted period of a person's life as affected by the untoward events due to the positions of the lords of the 1st, the 10th and the 8th bhavas and of the planet Saturn; but as it crops up again in connection with निधन (Nidhana) or the 8th bhava now under treatment, it is to be dealt with once more. If the lord of the 8th bhava being associated with a malefic planet occupy the 12th or the 6th bhava, the person concerned will be short-lived. The same effect is produced when the lord of the 8th bhava being weak happens to be associated with the lord of the Lagna in one of the two bhavas above-named (viz. the 6th or the 12th).

Notes.

[For things to be deduced from the 8th bhava, vide the following from (1) and (2).

Sloka 49. When the lord of the 8th bhava occupies its own house, the person born will be long-lived. If the lords of the 1st and the 8th bhavas occupy the 6th or the 12th bhava, then too will the person born enjoy prolonged vital energy. The lords of the 10th, the 1st and the 8th bhavas in a Kendra, a Trikona or the 11th bhava lead to long life. But if they be weak and in conjunction with Saturn, the astrologer may declare life to be short.

Note :-

This is well illustrated in Slokas 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 60 & 63 as found in writings.

Sloka 50. If the lords of the 10th, the 8th and the 1st bhavas be all of them strong and unassociated with Saturn, the person born will be long-lived. If even two of them be strong, the person concerned will have medium life. If only one of them be strong, his life will be shorter than in the preceding case. If none of them be strong, he will have no period of life worthy mentioning.

Sloka 51. If the lord of the 8th bhava being in conjunction with a malefic planet occupy a malefic sign or navamsa (Drasthana—5th, 8th or 12th), the life of the person concerned will be short. But if the planet owning the 8th bhava be associated with or aspected by a benefic one or occupy a benefic sign or the 8th bhava itself, the life of the person born will be long.

If the lord of the Lagna be in the 8th bhava or if the lord of the latter bhava in conjunction with or aspected by a malefic planet become invisible by its too great proximity to the Sun or be in the 6th bhava, the person born will be void of vitality. But if the lord of the 8th place from the Lagna be in its exaltation or in conjunction with a benefic planet or in a Kendra or a Trikona or in the 8th bhava itself, the person born will be blessed with long life. The same will be the case when the rising sign is occupied by its lord.

Sloka 53. If the lord of the 12th bhava from the Lagna occupy a स्वर्क्ष (Swakshetra) and be strong, the person born will live long in comfort. The same effect follows when the lords of the 1st and the 8th bhavas are strong and occupy a Kendra. If Venus, Mercury or Jupiter occupy or aspect the Moon's place or the 10th from the sign of conception or birth or from the 8th bhava, the person concerned will enjoy health and long life.

Sloka 54. If the lord of the 8th bhava occupy the 6th, the 8th or the 12th bhava, the astrologer may predict the demise of the person concerned (1) during the dasa and bhukti of the lord of the 8th bhava; or (2) during the dasa of the planet owning the Rasi occupied by Saturn when the bhukti of the lord of the 8th bhava is in progress; or (3) during the dasa of the lord of the 8th bhava when the bhukti of the planet next in order to the vyaya (Randhrapa-lord of the 8th bhava) is taking place—the question of "which of the three alternatives is to be chosen as applicable to any particular case" depending upon a nice balancing of the strength and weakness of the several planets concerned.

Sloka 55. If the lord of the Lagna occupy the 6th, the 8th, or the 12th bhava in conjunction with Rahu or Ketu, the fatal dasa to the person born is that of the planet which is associated with the lord of the Lagna or of the 8th bhava. (If there be no planet so associated) the dasa of the planet owning the Rasi occupied by the lord of the Lagna or the 8th bhava will prove fateful. The death of the person concerned will occur during the bhukti and apahara of Rahu in the fatal dasa when Rahu takes precedence of other planets in ripening that portion of the fatal dasa.

Sloka 56. If out of the lords of the 10th, 8th and the 1st bhavas and Saturn the weak one be associated with Rahu, death will usually take place during the dasa and bhukti of this weak planet; or during the dasa and antara of the planet aspecting it or associated with it.

Sloka 57. If the lord of the 8th bhava occupy the same, the person born will suffer from ailment during the dasa and bhukti of the lord of the 8th bhava. If the Lagna be occupied by its lord, the dasa and bhukti of the latter will bring on bodily suffering; but the person concerned will survive in each case, regain health and be happy. If the lord of the 8th bhava be strong, the dasa that brings on death is that of the lord of the Lagna.

Sloka 58. If, at the birth of a person, the 1st Bhava be void of strength, he will have much difficulty in tiding over the dasa periods of the lords of the Lagna and the 8th bhava. Surviving this, he will have exceeding happiness. In the case in which the lord of the Lagna is strong, the death of the person concerned will occur during the dasa of the lord of the 8th bhava.

If the lords of the Lagna and the 8th bhavas occupy a Kendra or Trikona in conjunction with another planet, the person will surely have his demise during the dasa of the planet if any occupying the 8th bhava.

Sloka 60. But if there be no planet in the 8th bhava (in the case considered in the latter part of the previous sloka), the death of the person concerned should be divined by means of the planet occupying the Lagna. The event will happen during the dasa of the last-mentioned planet when Saturn arrives in its progress through the orbit at the Lagna or the 8th bhava. If the lords of the 1st and the 8th Bhavas be in conjunction with other planets, then find out which of the associated planets is weak; and it is during the dasa and bhukti of this weak planet that the astrologer should declare as probable the death of the person concerned.

Sloka 61. (i) Find the aggregate number of years (according to अष्टम-Ududasa) of the planets associated with the lord of the 5th bhava. Divide this by 12. The remainder should indicate the zodiacal sign occupied by the Sun at the time of the person's demise. But if such lord of the 5th bhava is not associated with any other planet, then the aggregate number of years according to अष्टम (Udu dasa) of the lord of the 5th bhava should be divided by 12 and the remainder should indicate the zodiacal sign occupied by the Sun at the time of the person's demise. Again, add together the अष्टम (Udu dasa) periods of the lord of the Lagna and the lord of the 5th bhava or the planet associated with the lord of the 5th bhava as the case may be and divide the sum by 30. The result will indicate the day of the person's demise counted from the Sankrama day of the month.

Sloka 68. If the lords of the 9th, 1st and 4th bhavas should occupy a Kendra or Trikona, the sages say the mother of the person born will follow the father in death during the dasa and bhukti or one of these planets (which one of them ? should be determined from other sources). If the Moon in the 8th bhava be associated with Mars, Saturn or Rahu, the person concerned will become liable to epilepsy, and death will result from that disease. The same consequences follow if the Moon on the wane be associated with the above mentioned planets.

The lord of the 5th place from the 9th bhava is its awakener. If these planets be in exaltation or in their own signs, they produce long-lasting happiness.

Four such planets similarly placed in the 9th bhava and possessing strength are capable of yielding good fortune to the person concerned. This good fortune, they give in the country of one's birth if they occupy a position of exaltation, swakshetra or an amsa belonging to either of these two. Sloka 39. When the Sun, the Moon Mars, Jupiter and Venus combine in one and the same bhava with either Mercury or Saturn, the person born necessarily assumes the habit of a devotee and becomes gifted with long sight.

Sloka 41. When the Moon occupies a Drekkana of Saturn and is aspected by that planet, the yoga leads to the renunciation of the world. The same is the case when the Moon occupying an amsa of Saturn or Mars is aspected by Saturn. If the planet leading to the assumption of asceticism be associated with Rahu, Ketu or Gulika and at the same time occupy a malefic amsa, the person will be guilty of apostasy from the holy order.

Sloka 42. If strong planets capable of leading to asceticism (vide Sl. 15 supra) be obscured by the Sun's rays, the persons born will have great reverence for asceticism, though they may not become initiated into the holy order. If the planets referred to above be overcome in planetary war and aspected by other planets, the person concerned will seek admission into the holy order without success.

Notes.

This sloka is from Brihat Jataka

If the Sun forms a conjunction with other planets vide Sloka 14, supra then the man does not become a Sannyasin at all. What the Sun actually does is, he improves the devotional side of the school of philosophy denoted by the strong planet but does not make him a Sannyasin of that school of thought. If the planet that is defeated (by conjunction or aspect) or aspected by any planet, then the man makes persistent efforts for attaining the end in view.

PROFESSION, LIVELIHOOD.

Sloka 42. There is acquisition of wealth, firstly, from the father, mother, a foe, a friend, a brother, a wife or an inferior, according as the Sun or any of the other planets taken in order occupies the 10th place reckoned from the Lagna or the Moon, secondly, by means of the profession prescribed for the ruler of the 10th house or for the ruler of the Navamsa occupied by the planet owning the 10th place from the Lagna, from the Moon or from the Sun.

Notes.

Find the planet or planets occupying the 10th place reckoned from the Lagna as well as from the Moon. Ascertain which of them is strongest. If the Sun be such a planet, the native gets parental inheritance (from the father); if it be the Moon, he inherits property from the mother; if Mars, he gets money from enemies; if Mercury, from friends; if Jupiter, from brothers; if Venus, from wife; and if the planet be Saturn, he gets wealth from inferiors, such as servants, etc.

If Rahu or Ketu be in conjunction or aspect with the 10th house or its lord, or with the Sun or the Moon, they are to be treated accordingly.

Secondly, find out the rulers of the 10th house counted from the Lagna, the Sun and the Moon. Take the strongest of them and find out in what Navamsa he is. The ruler of that Navamsa will influence the profession.

Let us take the example given in the notes to Adh. V. Sl. 7. There is the Moon posited in the 10th place reckoned from the Lagnam will be from the Sun, and there are no planets in the 10th house from the Moon. The Moon is therefore the only planet that influences his income.

According to the other view, the lords of the 10th places reckoned from the Lagnam, the Sun and the Moon are Saturn, Saturn and Venus respectively. Saturn and Venus are to Dhanurarudha and Simha Navamsa respectively. The lords of these are Jupiter and the Sun; and the stronger of them is the Sun. The Sun is therefore the planet that influences the profession.

According to Bhattotpala, it is not correct to predict the profession by considering the strongest rāśi of the planets (1) posited in the tenth house reckoned from the Lagnam and the Moon, or (2) among the tenth house counted from the Lagnam, the Sun and the Moon. Every one of these should be considered for determining the source of income of the native. He quoted in support of his view the following slokas of गर्ग (Garga).

दृष्ट्वाच्चन्द्रार्कयोः लग्नं च यद्या दशमस्थिता ।
तं राशिमेकतः पश्येत् स्वदशासु यथोदितं ॥

तेनृत्या अर्थेष्टिर्वा नाटके महती यदा ।

"If this view be accepted, the income for the native in question will have to be determined with reference to the planets Jupiter (the lord of the Navamsa Rasi occupied by Saturn) and the Sun (the lord of the Navamsa occupied by Venus), i.e., from the sources mentioned in Slokas 48 and 49 supra.

"To determine the ways by which a person will earn money, the planets which are in the 1st, 2nd and the 5th (opposite to the 11th) houses, in a friend's house, in an enemy's house or in his own house, indicate the source. If the planets be bad, there will be maximum labor and minimum income; if they be good, there will be minimum labor and maximum income. If the Sun is exalted in the above position and at the same time strong (in good houses, etc.,) then the person concerned will earn money by his own exertion. (Note that the Sun in exaltation causes maximum labor and maximum income, the same when the other luminaries are posited in the tenth house.) If more than one planet be strong, then the native will have more than one source of income.

"The profession or occupation of a native is generally judged from the planet or planets occupying the tenth house and, if there should be none there, from those in the 1st and also from those aspecting the Sun and the Moon. Further, the planet which is posited very near the Sun or the 10th bhava whether before or after is the ruler of a native and its condition—whether strong or weak—has to be carefully and expertly followed in this respect.

Sloka 41. An astrologer is to declare the acquisition of wealth by any person with reference to the predomi-names of the Lagna or the Moon as the case may be in his horoscope. As to the profession that he is likely to follow, those that are proficient in the subject say, it is to be determined through the lord of the sign owning the Navamsa occupied by the lord of the 10th bhava. If the Navamsa referred to in the above belong to the Sun, the person concerned will earn a living by dealing in medicine, wool, grass, water, grain, work in gold, pearls and the like, as also by playing the part of an emissary between people wishing to approach each other.

Notes.

The occupations coming under the Sun are: some honorable employment either under the State or under some public body of men, kings, princes, emperors, dukes, earls, barons, etc., all titled appointments under the crown, jewellers, goldsmiths, gilders, owners of woollen mills or workers there, miners or men employed in mines and the like.

Sloka 45. If the Navamsa under reference be that of the Moon, the person concerned gains a living by dealing in things derived from water such as conchs, pearls, etc., by agriculture, earths of various kind, by indulging in interesting controversies, by purchase of articles of apparel in which the wealth of lordly women is wont to be laid out.

Notes.

The employments appointed by the Moon generally include sailors, mariners, navigators, fishermen, boatmen, dealers in pearls, those working in pearl fisheries, midwives, nurses, etc.

If the Navamsa in question belong to Mars, the person gains a livelihood by metallurgy, by war, by exhibiting tricks in which the operation of fire is apparently arrested (अग्निस्तम्भ – Agnisthambha) and by engaging in other people's quarrels, in any act of daring, and lastly by resorting to the profession of a robber.

Notes.

The professions indicated by Mars are all kinds of military men, such as soldiers, generals, colonels, captains, doctors, physicians, apothecaries, chemists, butchers, executioners engine drivers and the like—generally all workers in iron, steel or fire.

If the Navamsa belong to Mercury, the person concerned will try to earn his livelihood by pursuing the arts, by poetry, by the profession of traditional doctrines, by a knowledge of the stars, by the recitation of the Vedas or muttering of prayers on behalf of others at the instance of the priest that has so direct their religious ceremonies.

Notes.

Mercury's employments denote literary talents, translators, writers, accountants, astrologers, school masters, mathematicians, poets, lawyers, book sellers, priests, pandits, etc.

sbury as a source of living, but will support himself with what he can earn by playing the role of an instructor in the service of Brahmins and deities, and by teaching duties in the domain of morals and traditional observances based on scriptures and other old authoritative works.

Notes

The occupations denoted by Jupiter include judges, priests, learned noble senators, preachers, clergymen, ministers, diplomats and bankers.

Notes

Venus's professions include dealers in gold, ruby, elephants or horses, cows, jaggery, hotel-keepers, confectioners, shepherds, musicians, painters, linen drapers, prostitutes, silversmiths, goldsmiths, lapidaries, sweetmeat makers, maid servants, etc.

Notes.

Satya's employments include shoe-makers, scavengers, grave-diggers, undertakers and all persons engaged in similar vile pursuits; they also include gardeners, miners, brick-layers etc.,

Sloka 67. It is through the 11th bhava from the Lagna that every accumulation of incoming wealth is expected; the planet in the 11th bhava when possessed of full strength is capable of giving wealth. If the Sun be such a planet, much wealth is derived by the person concerned from paternal kinsfolk: if the Moon, from maternal relations, if Mars, from personal exertion; if Mercury be the planet occupying the 11th bhava in full strength, wealth comes to the person concerned from a dear master, a discerning friend or a maternal uncle.

Notes

This as well as the next five slokas appear in reverse.

What can be divined from the 11th bhava is thus stated in the same work:

Venus in the same advantageous position secures accession of riches through females and knowledge of the fine arts such as poetry, dramas and music. If the planet occupying the 11th bhava be benefic, the person born will have wealth acquired by fair means; the same will be illgotten if the planet in the bhava be malefic; and mixed if the occupants of the bhava be of a mixed nature. This fact, the astrologer should clearly state as revealed by the horoscope. If the planet in the 11th bhava be strong and preponderatingly friendly, the person born will possess every amiable quality and will be surpassingly blessed with every means of enjoyment such as vehicles, ornaments, articles of apparel, women, luxurious appliances and learning.

The prediction in regard to wealth should be made in accordance with the strength of the planet associated with the bhava or its lord, and it will come from the class of persons whom kāraka the associated planet may represent, and during its dasa and apahara and from the quarter belonging thereto.

It is through the 12th bhava, its lord and Saturn that an astrologer should divine a person's wandering; for, misfortune or evil doom, liberality, the comforts of bed, etc.; dignity and waste of wealth. FEMALE HOROSCOPE.

श्रीमत्कारेण्यसन्तानसिद्धकीर्तिविवर्द्धनम् ।
तिथिनक्षत्रसंयुक्तं जातकं शृणुते नगम् ॥ १ ॥

Sloka 1. We are now going to speak of the female horoscope with its characteristic lunation, Rasis and planets, because it is a means of promoting prosperity, power, health, offspring, knowledge and fame.

अर्थार्जने सहायः पुरुषाणामागदर्णवे पोतः ।
यात्राकाले मन्त्री आयकमवहाय नास्त्यपरः ॥ २ ॥

Sloka 2. There is nothing in the world like a horoscope to help men in the acquisition of wealth, to save them like boat in a sea of troubles and to serve them as a guide in their journeys.

Notes-

The object of the sloka in this Adhyaya is only to show that it is the सप्तशलाका (Seven Jewels) that is alluded to by the word नग in the sloka and which help or guide the mankind in the sea of troubles.

Sloka 3. The female horoscope is to be written in a fine neat sheet of paper with correct planetary tables serviceable for reference and exhibiting the almanac (of the day of birth in question). It is to show also the Ashtakavargas (Adhyaya 10) of planets, their positional and other six-fold strength (षड्बल Shadbala), the length of life of the person concerned, the गोचरफल (Gochara phala) i.e. the effects of the progress of planets in their orbits, the योगफल (Yogaphala, Adhyaya 7) and the भावफल (Bhavaphala, Adhyayas 11–15). The horoscope should give at the same time the Dasa Tables mentioning the number of children destined to live to a great age, the happiness of the husband, the great prosperity and fame which the whole family is to enjoy.

Sloka 4. Whatever effect may accrue from the horoscopes of females that is applicable only to them, should be ascribed to the husband. The good and evil affecting their person should be calculated from the Moon and the Lagna whichever of them is stronger. It is from the 7th place from the Lagna or the Moon that all that is worthy or unworthy in the husbands should be ascertained, and the death of the husbands is foretold through the Ashtbhava (from the Lagna or the Moon). All this should be well weighed by the strength or weakness of the planets, benefic and malefic, before an announcement is made.

Whatever effect may accrue from the horoscope of a female that is applicable only to men should be attributed to the husband. Her property and happiness have to be deduced from the 8th house (from the Lagna or the Moon whichever is strong). Children should be deduced through the 9th house and matters relating to her appearance, beauty, etc. should be determined from the Lagna. It is from the 7th place that her welfare and the (nature of the) husband should be ascertained while her conservatism and chastity should be predicted from an examination of the 4th house. Benefics in these houses produce good results, while malefics in the above houses are productive of evil unless they happen to own the houses in which case the effect will be good.

Sloka 5. Of the Lagna and the Moon, find which is the stronger. It is with reference to this that the luck, beauty and strength of women should be announced. Children and wealth in abundance should be declared through the 9th bhava therefrom. Wedded happiness or otherwise should be gathered from the 8th bhava; husband's fortune from the 7th house and accordingly that the well-being or the reverse of the husband can be determined from the 9th bhava.

Sloka 6. Some hold that widowhood is found out through the 8th bhava; beauty, fame and fortune through the Lagna; the son through the 5th; wedded happiness with the husband through the 7th, asceticism as well as the unceasing tranquillity of women through the planets occupying the 9th bhava. All else whether due to the bhavas or yogas are the same in regard to both men and women.

Sloka 7. If the Lagna and the Moon be in an even sign, the female born will have the form and characteristics of the best of her sex. If they be aspected by or associated with a benefic planet, she will possess excellent qualities, of steadfast virtue and prosperous. If the sign occupied by them be an odd one, she would be masculine in form, fickle-minded, masculine in her bearing and sinful; and if they be aspected by or associated with malefic planets, she will be profligate.

If both the ascendant and the Moon are in even signs and be aspected by benefic planets, the woman born will have good name, possess an excellent husband and be well-ornamented. She will be very prosperous and possess excellent qualities. If, in an odd sign, both the Lagna and the Moon be associated with or aspected by a benefic planet, the qualities, the aspect, the position, the gait and the intelligence of the female born will be of a mixed kind; but if, in an even sign, both the Lagna and the Moon be associated with or aspected by a malefic planet, the character of the female born, say the wise astrologers, will be shaped wholly by the influence of the planet associated with or aspecting the lord of the even sign under reference.

Sloka 11. When Saturn has but medium strength; when the Moon, Venus and Mercury are weak; and when the remaining planets are possessed of real strength, the female that is born in an odd Lagna will associate with many men. When Jupiter, Mars, Mercury and Venus are strong, and when the rising sign is an even one, the woman born will become celebrated for her knowledge of every science developing ultimately into an expounder of the scriptures.

Mother is indicated by Venus in Gaṇḍāntha and by the Moon in night-births (Chapter III. v. 15 supra). Lagna must be one of Aries, Scorpio, Capricorn and Aquarius; Venus or the Moon as the case may be should occupy the Lagna and be aspected by a malefic planet. The female owning the nativity becomes immoral along with the mother. If a Navāṁśa of Mars be setting and be aspected by Saturn she suffers from diseased organs. If the Devakoṣṭha be a sign of Saturn (Śrīdhara-Śrīkaṇṭha) or be occupied by benefics, or the ruler is aspected by benefics or in a sign (Subhāmśa), she is loved by her husband.

The first पाद (Pāda) of the śloka has been interpreted by Bhaṭṭotpala thus: "When a sign of Saturn or Mars is the Lagna and the Moon and Venus aspected (both of them) by a malefic planet occupy it." This is not acceptable.

The yogas mentioned hitherto become applicable in connection with the time of marriage, the time of selecting a girl, the time of her gift and the time when a query is made regarding her.

Notes.

This as well as sloka 43 have been taken from Brihat Jataka.

Any planet—whether benefic or malefic—will not bring about widowhood but will make the woman born more devoted to her husband. She will sacrifice herself for him according to the philosophical temperament denoted by the planet in the 9th house as described in Adhi XV. Sl. 15 supra.

An important principle is enunciated here. There must be a planet in the 9th—positive Trikona of the yoga—to give good results at the time of marriage, betrothal, etc., or at the time of talk regarding marriage.

Notes

The period given for each planet in the Navamsakaryekam (vide Vol. supra) system is the period after which widowhood occurs.

If born with any one of the signs Virgo, Taurus, Leo and Scorpio as the lagna and a malefic planet in the 8th bhava and a benefic planet in the 2nd bhava, she does not at all undergo widowhood and without issue.

Sloka 36. When the rising sign at the birth of a female is occupied by the Moon and Venus, she will be short-tempered and live in ease and comfort. In every case where the Lagna is occupied by the Moon, the female born generally lives in ease with no craving for carnal enjoyment and is amiable.

Sloka 50. When a female is born in a Navamsa belonging to the Rasi of the 7th bhava, her husband will be soft-hearted, possessed of excellent qualities, and full of assurance. When Saturn in the 7th bhava occupies his own Amsa or Rasi, the female concerned will be wedded to an old and exceedingly dull husband.

Śloka 61. A female will have a decrepit husband when the lord of the 9th bhava and Jupiter happen to occupy a दुःस्थान (Dusthana) at her birth; he will be long-lived and wealthy if the two planets occupy a Trikona or a Kendra bhava. If they be associated with the lord of the 4th bhava or Mercury, the husband will be a person of learning; if they be associated with Mars or Saturn, he will be an agriculturist; if with Rahu or Ketu, a villain; if with the lord of the 5th bhava, he will become a robber-chieftain.

Śloka 62. The husband will be fair-limbed, lustful and have fiery eyes when the Sun occupies the 7th bhava in a female's horoscope; if the Moon be in that bhava, the husband of the female concerned will be handsome, worthy, spare, voluptuous and troubled with ailments; if Mars be in the 7th bhava, she will have for her spouse, a man humble in appearance, delighting in cruelty, indolent, with a ready tongue and of a ruddy hue; if Mercury occupy the bhava in question, the husband will be a man of taste, amply endowed with learning, wealth and excellent qualities.

Sloka 63. If the planet occupying the 7th bhava be Jupiter, the husband of the female concerned will be a person blessed with long life, with wealth and power equal to a king's, and lustful in his youth; if Venus, he will be lovely, ever playful and diverting and gifted with the highest poetical faculty; if Saturn, he will be old, infirm and wicked; and lastly if Rahu or Ketu be in the 7th bhava, the husband of the female concerned will be a low, evil-minded wretch or some such person.

Sloka 64. In this chapter on Female Horoscopy, we have given accurately with reference to husbands the same information which we gave while treating of men's horoscope regarding wives such as the regions from which they may come, their status, the protection of their sisters and the qualities evinced in their acts. The number of children will correspond to the number of Navamsas attained by the powerful among the planets occupying the 7th bhava or its Amsa. The lord of that bhava when occupying a Kendra will produce much jubilation on marriage and other festal occasions.

Thus ends &c.

Adhyaya XVII.

KALACHAKRADASA

The (नवम) kalachakra system of ayurdaya referred to already in Adhyaya 6, sloka 35, is based on the Moon's position in a नक्षत्र or quarter of an asterism. For the purposes of this ayurdaya, the 27 stars from Aswini to Revati are classified into nine groups of three each, the five odd groups or trinds being styled सव्य (Savya) or दक्षिण (Dakshina) and the four even ones as अपसव्य (Apasavya) or वाम (Vama) or उत्तर (Uttara). The peculiarity of सव्य (Savya) trend is that its 12 padas (पाद) are assigned to the 12 Rasis from Mesha onwards. In the अपसव्य (Apasavya) trind, the 12 padas belong to the 12 Rasis sectioned in a reverse order from Vrisha to Mina.

The 12 Nakshatra padas (नक्षत्र) whether of a सव्य (Savya) or of an अपसव्य (Apasavya) trind can be brought under the four triangular signs according to the Rasis to which they are severally assigned. In accordance with this classification, four kinds of परमायुष् (Paramayus) or maximum life will be shown to result (Vide sloka 12).

The चक्रनक्षत्रपादायुष् (Chakrachakra nakshatrapadayus) or its entire length comprises nine mahadasas (महादशा) presided over by nine Rasis and their lords. The order in which the several Kalachakra padas get such Rasis as mahadasas is indicated in the numerals for the सव्य (Savya) and अपसव्य (Apasavya) chakras respectively. These formulae are expressed by conventional letters चतुर्थ (Chaturthi) referred to already on page 606. Two additional letters ओ and औ used in the formulae denote the numbers 11 and 12 respectively.

It appears to be an accepted canon in the kalachakra system that the maximum length of the life of any person whether born in the beginning, middle or end of a नक्षत्रपाद (nakshatra pada) should not exceed the length of the same mahadasa (for that pada) reckoned from that at birth.

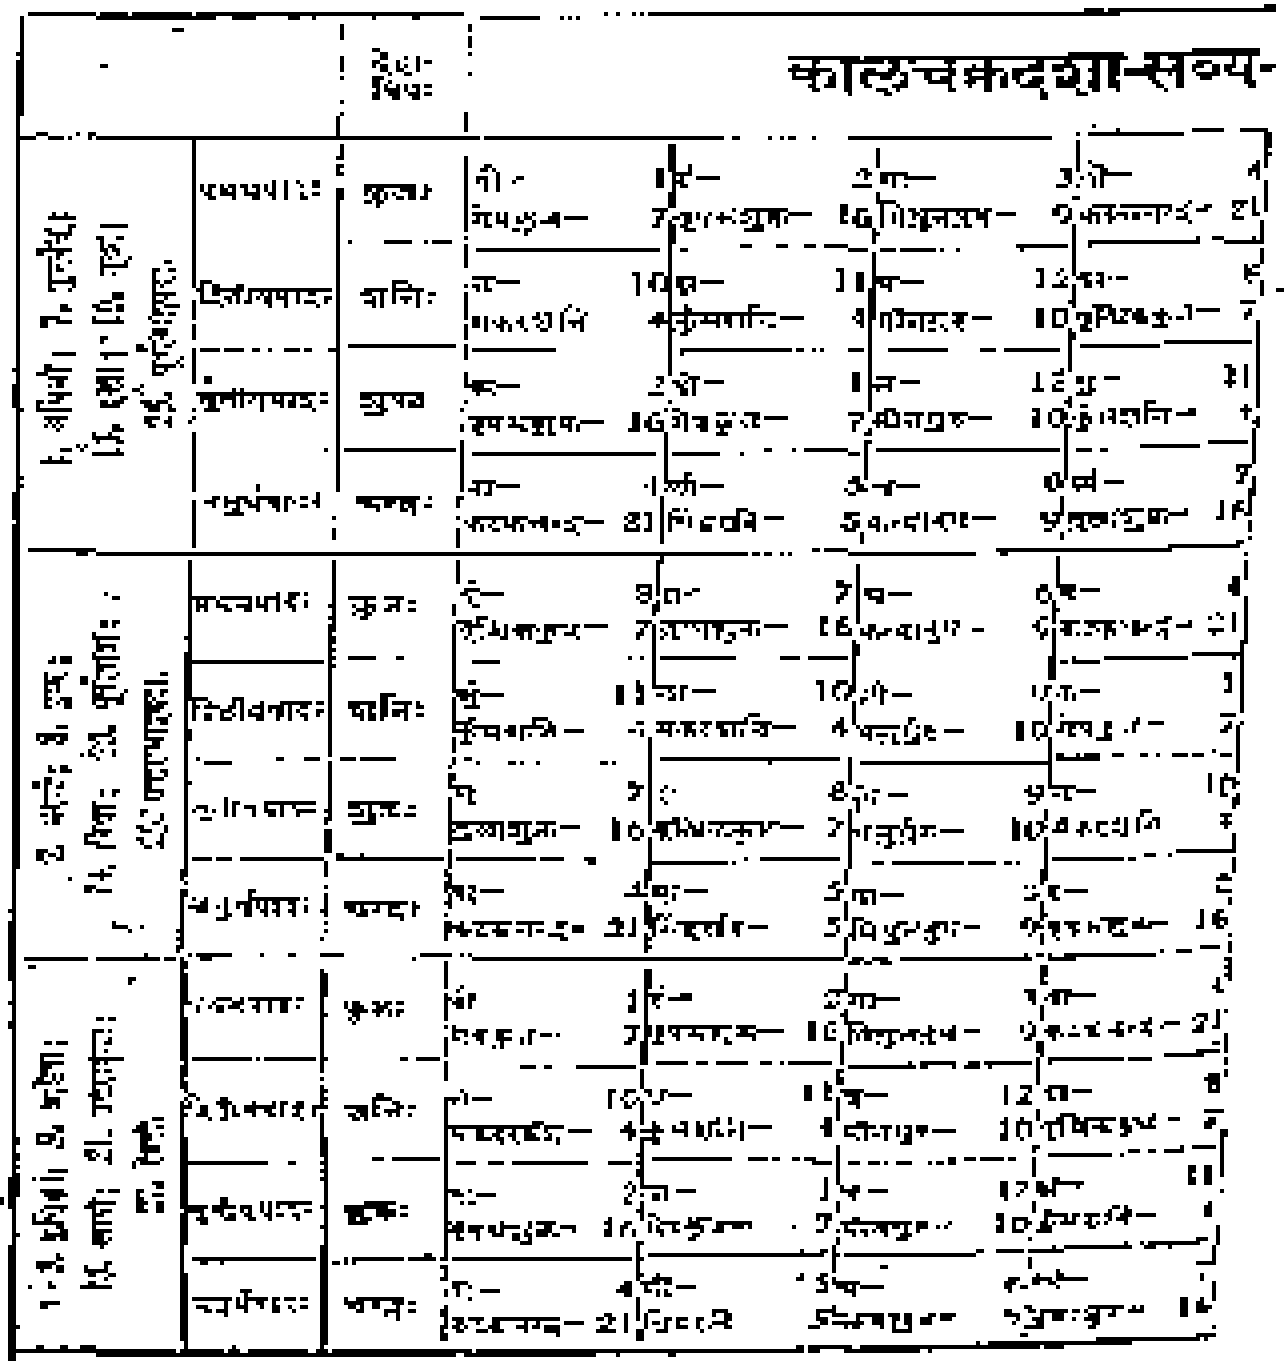

For a knowledge of the terms जीव (Jeeva), मण्डूकगति (Manduka gati), मार्जारगति (Marjara gati), सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana), the reader should refer to slokas 89 - 92. In connection with the terms मण्डूकगति (Manduka gati) and मार्जारगति (Marjara gati), it will be interesting to note that in a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra) the two movements take place from Kanya to Karka and Simha to Mithuna respectively, while in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra) they are invariably from Karka to Kanya and Mithuna to Simha and these occur only in the cycles which run from Vrischika to Dhanus and vice versa.

A reason for this will appear when we remember that it is only by such an arrangement the order of planets in both the cycles can be made identical.

Slokas 1–2. Bowing to Siva, the supreme soul, the prime cause of all things, standing in the centre of the planetary systems and comprehending in his omniscience the 64 branches of knowledge, the all-benign goddess Parvati asked that supreme Ruler of all Gods as follows: "Tell me, oh lord, in detail the entire course of the wheel of time कालचक्र (Kalachakra)."

ईश्वर उवाच ।
आदावादित्यरूपोऽसि चन्द्रं त्वां मेषचक्रके ।

कालचक्रदशा-सव्य-

कालचक्रदीपिका-अपसव्य-

Rāswara said—

Sloka 3. "I am of the nature of the Sun and thou art declared to be the Moon. The whole universe consisting of mobile and immobile things is brought about by the conjunction and opposition (separation) of the Sun and the Moon.

पञ्चप्राचीरालिखेद्भगर्वल्गा तिर्यक्षेपगणितान्तरसूत्रकाः ।

Sloka 4. Draw five straight lines from west to east and five cross-wise in such a manner that the interior four squares are left vacant (are not represented in the chakra). The resulting twelve squares are the twelve celestial signs Mesha and others, the lords of the east and other points of the compass.

भौमज्ञगुरुकविशनीनर्क्षेन्द्वसितार्किजगन्दर्जीवाः ।
क्रमेण मेषादिषु राशिनाथास्तद्देशाधीति वदन्ति सन्तः ॥ ५ ॥

Sloka 5. Wise men say that Mars, Venus, Mercury, the Moon, the Sun, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Saturn and Jupiter are respectively the lords of the signs from Mesha onwards and also of their areas.

भूतिकावंशकुगिरयो रविदिक्कोदशक्यगाः ।
सूर्यादीनां क्रमाद्दत्ता राशीनां स्वामिनो वशात् ॥ ६ ॥

Sloka 6. 6, 21, 7, 9, 10, 16 and 4 are the years respectively of the 7 planets reckoned from the Sun. The years of the signs correspond to the years of their lords.

अब्धीषुनर्वसुहुलभूलोभ्रपद्वारिषु ।
मेषकात् गणयेन्मेषादक्षिप्यकर्म यदेत् ॥ ७ ॥

दोहिणमिधवैशाखत्रैप्यत्राश्विषु मेषु च ।
अंशकान् वृश्चिकादीनां गणयेदपसव्यतः ॥ ८ ॥

Slokas 7–8. In the 6 triads of stars beginning respectively with Aswini, Punarvasu, Hasta, Mula and Purvaproshtapeda, reckon the quarters from Mesha in the दक्षिण (Pradakshina) order. In the four triads commencing with Rohini, Makha, Visakha, and Sravana, reckon the quarters from Vrischika in the अपदक्षिण (Appradakshina) order.

दक्षिणाभिधनक्षत्रं आदर्शांशकलाश्रितु ।
चक्रं प्रदक्षिणक्रिया मीनान्तं विन्यसेत्पुनः ॥ ९ ॥
उत्तरात्रयनक्षत्रं वृश्चिकाद्यमदक्षिणम् ।
कृत्वा चापान्तकेऽन्त्यांशान् द्वादशस्वे दक्षिणोत्तरे ॥ १० ॥

Slokas 9–10. The चक्र (chakra) consisting of a दक्षिण (Dakshina) triad of stars should be cast in the प्रदक्षिण (Pradakshina) order from Mesha to Meena among the 12 Rasis to which the Navamsas composing the triad belong. Again, the 12 quarters of the triad called उत्तर (Uttara) (in contrast with दक्षिण (Dakshina) of the previous sloka) are to be assigned to the 12 Rasis in the अपदक्षिण (Appradakshina) order from Vrischika to Dhanus. Thus, दक्षिण (Dakshina) and उत्तर (Uttara) have to be apprehended as distinct each from the other.

यच्चापचक्रमार्गेण चाश्विन्यादि त्रिकं त्रिकम् ।
देहादि गणयेत्सव्ये वामे जीवादि गण्यते ॥ ११ ॥

Sloka 11. Thus, the triads of stars reckoned from Aswini are to be distinguished as दक्षिण (Dakshina) and उत्तर (Uttara) just as their padas are reckoned in the प्रदक्षिण (Pradakshina) or अपदक्षिण (Appradakshina) order of Rasis. In the नव (Navya) triad the reckoning begins with देह (Deha). In the अपनव्य (Apanavya) triad it begins with जीव (Jeeva).

सेषाणामंशकुंडीरमंदिरेष्वंशकेषु परमायुरुच्यते ।
क्षयार्कं शदवाजलवद् क्षयात् क्षीणमयनेषु वसुदेव ॥ १२ ॥

Sloka 12. In the अंश (Amsas) i. e. quarters of the nakshatras representing the houses Mesha, Vrishabha, Mithuna and Katka, the greatest life is declared to result, being measured respectively by the numbers 100, 85, 80 and 68. The same holds good in respect to the Trikona Rasis of the four foregoing.

यत्रमायुष्परिज्ञानं देहजीवौ अकल्प्य च ।
सव्ये तु प्रथमांशस्तु देह इत्यभिधीयते ॥ १३ ॥
शेषाः सर्वेष्वलग्नादौ विलोमक्रमकल्पके ।

Slokas 13 and 13½. There can thus be a thorough knowledge of the age of a person when what are called देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva) are previously settled. In the सव्यचक्र (Savya Chakra) the first division of every Rasi is called देह (Deha) and the last is termed जीव (Jeeva). In the अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra) this is reversed.

देहजीवे यदा राहुः केतुर्भौमो रविः क्षितः ॥ १४ ॥
तदा तस्मिन् भवेन्मृत्युर्देहे रोगः प्रवर्तते ।

Slokas 13½–14½. When Rahu, Ketu, Mars, or the Sun happen to be in the conjunction of देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva), there will be death in consequence thereof. If they happen to be in देह (Deha) alone, disease sets in, or, rather,

देहस्थौषधसंयोगे शीतार्कदर्शनादिभिः ।

सुखसंपत्करं सर्वं शोकरोगविनाशनम् ।
मिश्रसंस्थैस्तु संयुक्तं मिश्रं फलमनाशयेत् ॥ १६ ॥

Slokas 14½–16. When Mercury, Jupiter and Venus go to a house which represents देह (Deha) or जीव (Jeeva), then everything tends to happiness and prosperity and there is an end of sorrow and sickness. When the देह (Deha) or the जीव (Jeeva) house is occupied by a mixture of good and bad planets, the effect would be of a mixed nature.

Sloka 29. The planet occupying the देह (Deha) produces a dangerous malady while the one occupying the जीव (Jeeva) brings on great risk. If both the देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva) be occupied by the malefic planets named (in the previous sloka), then, undoubtedly, the person concerned becomes a victim.

Slokas 47–50. As the zone the चक्रदृश (Chakradrik) of the Lagna is in progress, health of body, much happiness, acquisition of fame, ornaments, dominion, wealth, children, wives and apparel may be announced. If the Lagna be in an auspicious sign, everything will come off auspiciously; it will be otherwise when the Lagna is in a malefic sign and also when occupied by a malefic planet. When the Lagna being in a benefic sign is also occupied by a benefic planet, the result will be exceedingly happy. If the planet in the Lagna be in its swakshetra, in its exaltation or in a friendly house and the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the Lagna be in progress, dominion, wealth and honor from the sovereign will accrue. If, on the other hand, the planet in the Lagna be depressed, eclipsed, or in an inimical house, there will be loss of children, wife and such other dear objects; if the Lagna and its occupants be of a mixed character, the astrologer should declare the effect to be of a mixed nature.

During the चक्रदशा (Chakradasa) of the 2nd Rasi may be expected increase of wealth and corn, good food, acquisition of children and wives, lands, cattle, honor by the sovereign, attainment of knowledge, eloquence and amusement in good company. When the Rasi in question is auspicious, such good effects as has been said above will follow, it will be otherwise when the Rasi is malefic.

The good things the astrologer is to divine when the Rasi is good; but all this will be absent when the Rasi is bad.

The astrologer should as before apportion the effects properly according as they are due to malefic or benefic Rasis and the presence in them or aspect of them by malefic or benefic planets. He is to add loss of place or position when the Rasi is a moveable one.

place, great risk due to gonorrhœa, colic, jaundice and kindred ailments, diarrhœa and consumption, ill-fame, loss of wives, wealth, children and relatives, captivity, being put in irons, harassment on account of debts and poverty. These will be the effects when the Rasi is malefic. The effect will be mixed when the 6th Rasi is benefic.

Stanzas 64–65. When the 7th Rasi is benefic and is occupied by a benefic planet, the good effects spoken of will surely follow.

Stanzas 66–67. During the चक्रम (Chakradasa) of the 8th Rasi there will be much misery, waste of wealth, loss of place, loss of relations, griping pain in the privities and the stomach, poverty, famine and danger from enemies. These effects the astrologer may announce when the Rasi is malefic and occupied by a malefic planet.

Slokas 68–69. When the चक्रम (Chakradasa) of the 9th Rasi sets in, good will certainly result -viz. children, friends, wives, wealth, agriculture, cattle, houses, ornaments, accomplishment of good works and charity; the securing of adherents among men connected with the great men in power. All this will accrue when the Rasi is propitious. It will be otherwise when the Rasi is malefic.

Slokas 70–71 When the चक्रम (Chakradasa) of the Rasi of the 10th bhava is in progress and when that Rasi is propitious, the following good things may be predicted by a competent astrologer—acquisition of a kingdom, honour by a king, good fame, great rejoicing in the society of one's wives, children and relatives, possession of authority, sound health, pleasant recreations in company with good people, the fruit of good works and supremacy.

Slokas 73–73. During the चक्रदल (Chakradasa) of the Rasi of the 11th bhava, the person concerned will come into possession of money, health, ornaments and have an accession of varied property and household furniture. When good planets appear in the Rasi in question, the astrologers declare there will be, as the result hereof, comfort and happiness accured to the females, the children and the relatives, return from unproductive investments, real prosperity, royal favor and good fellowship.

Slokas 74–75. When the चक्रदल of the Rasi of the 12th bhava is in progress and when that Rasi happens to be malefic, the following evils may without doubt crop up—bodily suffering, loss of place, encounter with robbers, fire, royal displeasure and the like; trouble from relatives, from women and from the king; obstruction of activity, lassitude, loss in agriculture, in cattle and in lands; poverty and want of occupation.

Sloka 76. We have thus stated the effect of the bhavas from the Lagna to the twelfth (both inclusive).

It has got a peculiarity which is now going to be specially pointed out.

Slokas 77-79. In accordance with the strength of the planet owning a particular Rasi under consideration should the astrologer use suitably the rule enunciated; when the lord of the Rasi in question is possessed of strength occupying a varga belonging to its exaltation house, to a friendly arga or to itself and when the associated planets are friendly and the aspecting ones benefic, the good effects stated already may be announced. But when the lord of the Rasi has no strength being in its depression, in an inimical house or eclipsed by the Sun's rays or when it occupies the 6th, the 8th or the 12th bhava and the aspecting planets are malefic or unfriendly —when such is at birth the state of the planet owning the Rasi under consideration—the effect produced by it will be painful.

Slokas 80-81. The effect produced by a Rasi is of two sorts: bad as well as good. If the lord of the Rasi be without strength, the person concerned will suffer the evil effects. If the planet owning the Rasi predominate in strength, the effect of the Rasi will be good: and if the Rasi be capable of producing good as well as evil, while its lord continues predominant, the good will undoubtedly come to pass.

Sloka 82. If the lord of the Rasi referred to in the preceding slokas be in a moveable sign or occupy a Navamsa owned by a moveable sign and if the Vargya (Kalachakra) be that produced by a moveable sign, the person concerned will have to go to a foreign country.

यावच्चक्रं चरं ज्ञेयं यदेकस्मिन् चरे स्थिते ।

Sloka 83. In the case adverted to in the preceding sloka, the repairing to a foreign country will continue as long as the Vrs (Chakra) in question lasts. If one, and not both, of the above conditions have the characteristic of moveability, the astrologer should decide the question of the person concerned going to a foreign country or being in his native place just as the balance of forces tends to the one or to the other.

Sloka 84–86½. Planetary effects which it is possible to foretell have been described, some of them in the सञ्ज्ञाध्याय (Sangnya adhyaya) i.e. in the chapter on Definitions, Adhyayas 1 & 2), some in the chapter on कर्मजीव (Karma Jeeva–Adhyaya 15), some in that treating of the आश्रय (Asraya) yogas (Adhyaya 7), and some in connection with the particular positions of planets (Adhyaya 8), with the Rajayoga, Chandra yoga, Nabhasa yogas (Adhyaya 7) and the like, and also some as due to good and bad aspects and to the combinations in one and the same bhava of two or more planets. An intelligent astrologer should, by a due exercise of his faculties, consider well these planetary effects as they have been described by ancient sages and utilise them for making his predictions in connection with the कालचक्रदशा (Kalachakradasa).

Slokas 87–94½. Lay out upon the floor a diagram of the दक्षिणचक्र (Dakshina Chakra) which begins with Mesha and ends with Meena. Draw also another diagram on the ground, of the नक्षत्रचक्र (Nakshatra Chakra) beginning with Vrishika and ending with Dhanus in the reverse order. Success or failure and whether it be in the East, West, North or South, a wise astrologer can ascertain as pointed out by the Rasis and the planets in a horoscope according to their strength. Every body can have such things foretold in respect to his life in the way that has been pointed out.

मण्डूकगमनं चैव पृष्ठतो गमनं तथा ।
सिंहावलोकनं नाम पुनरागमनं भवेत् ॥ ९० ॥

Slokas 89–90 The progress of कालचक्र (Kalachakra wheel of time) has been ascertained by ancient sages to take place in three ways—(1) मण्डूकगमन (Mandukagamana) a frog's leap; (2) पृष्ठतोगमन (Prishtatogamana) a going backward in view to the same movement; (3) सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana) the glancing of a lion which consists in returning by the way traversed already.

मीनवृश्चिकयोश्चापमेषयोः केसरी गतिः ॥ ९१ ॥
कन्याकर्कटयोः सिंहवृषभयोर्मण्डूका गतिः ।

Slokas 91–91½. The second of the three movements mentioned in the previous sloka occurs in respect to the signs Karaka and Simha. The third, i.e., केसरी-गति is a direct passage between Meena and Vrischika, as also between Dhanus and Mesha either way. The frog's leap is the direct passage between Kanya and Karaka, as well as Simha and Mithuna (avoiding in each case the intermediate sign).

Slokas 93-93½. At the time of a सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana), astrologers say, there will be suffering caused by fever, loss of place, of a loving relation or other such person, distress to persons having the same status as the owner of the horoscope in the family, accident in water such as falling in a well, danger from poison, fire of some deadly weapon, and being thrown from a vehicle. All this is likely to happen when the सिंहावलोकन (Simhavalokana) is synchronous with the दशाछिद्र (Dasachidra), i. e. the dasa period, bhukti, apahara, etc. of an ill-placed malefic planet (vide next sloka).

क्रूरास्तनीचापचमस्थेचरण दशा यदि ॥ ९४ ॥
दशाछिद्रमिति प्रोक्तं भवदन्ति विपश्चितः ।

Sloka 94½. The term दशाछिद्र (Dasachidra), astrologers say, is applied to a period when the dasa of a malefic, eclipsed, depressed or ill-placed planet is in progress.

मण्डूकगमनेसंभूतसमये मरणं गुरोः ॥ ९५ ॥

Sloka 96. If the मण्डूकगमन (Mandukagamana) refers to a सव्यचक्र (Savyachakra), there will be distress to persons in the family holding equal status with the owner of the horoscope.

Sloka 98 and 99. In a सिंहावलोक (Simhavaloka) having reference to a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra), the evil cropping up will be danger from a quadruped or fire. When there is a पृष्ठगमन (Prishtatogamana) in a सव्यचक्र (Savya chakra), there will be loss of wealth, grain and cattle, disease or death of a father, or the demise of persons of equal standing.

On the other hand, when the चक्र (Chakra) is अपसव्य (Apasavya) and there is a मण्डूकगति (Mandukagati), it may occasion illness and trouble to the wife or children of the person concerned or a severe fever to himself, or danger from a beast or an enemy, or loss of place. If there be a सिंहावलोक (Simhavaloka) in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra), the evil to be dreaded may be loss of place or the death of the person's father, Sloka 101. If there be a पृष्ठगमन (Prishthathogamanna) in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavyachakra), the astrologer may predict an accident in water, loss of place, loss of father, the incurring the displeasure of a sovereign and the person's having to betake in consequence to an inaccessible jungle.

If there be a सिंहावलोकन (Simhavaloka) in an अपसव्यचक्र (Apasavya chakra), the evil to be dreaded may be loss of place or the death of the person's father.

the initial subahdasa being that of the quarter asterism occupied by the Moon in the horoscope under examination.

An illustration will make the whole thing clear. Take for instance the case of the horoscope given in para 737 supra.

The Moon's position is 9 signs, 14 degrees, 29 minutes, 34 seconds. These when reduced to minutes give 17,069'·5. Dividing this by 800 (the number of minutes of a star), we get 21 stars and 269'65 minutes. The person was born after 269'65 minutes had passed in the 22nd star viz. श्रवण (Sravana) i.e. after 69'65 minutes had passed in the 2nd quarter of the star, and the Rasi owning this nakshatra-pada is Tula in the Apasavya chakra. The mnemonic formula corresponding to this pada is सप्तर्क्षगतिर्विशेत् which when translated into figures will become 9-7-9-17-1 i.e. 9-7-9-27. According to the first school $\frac{69'65}{200} \times$ 27 years = or 28'90475 years having elapsed before birth, about 3 years of Vyavahara Kala dasa (विव्यवहारकाल) still remain to be passed at the time of birth of the person concerned. The subahdas that follow next will be those of Rasis, then graha-rasi, सप्तर्क्षगत, सूर्यनक्षत्र and ग्रहनक्षत्र follow in their order. The subsidiary portions of each of these subahdasas belong to these 9 Rasis, e.g., the bhuktis of the 10 years of सप्तर्क्षगत will be (1) मेषके $\frac{10 \times 10}{83}$ years, (2) वृषभके $\frac{1 \times 10}{83}$ years, (3) मिथुनके $\frac{9 \times 10}{83}$ years, (4) कर्कके $\frac{10 \times 10}{83}$ years, (5) सिंहके $\frac{7 \times 10}{83}$ years; (6) कन्याके $\frac{16 \times 10}{83}$ years, (7) तुलाके $\frac{9 \times 10}{83}$ years; (8) वृश्चिके $\frac{16 \times 10}{83}$ years; and (9) धनुराशि $\frac{7 \times 10}{83}$ years. Similarly for the other dasas.

The second school will maintain that the antral subahdasa of the horoscope under reference is that of मृगनक्षत्र out of which $\frac{69'65}{200} \times 15$ or 5'87 years having elapsed already, there is still 10'13 years to be passed and the subahdasas to follow are those of मघानक्षत्र, पितृक्षेत्र, पूर्वाफल्गुनी, सिंहराशि, पूर्वाषाढा and so on. The order of the subsidiary periods in each subahdasa is that of the Rasis of the letters in the corresponding formula, e.g. the bhuktis of the 5

Notice.

Astrologers are divided into two schools according to their manner of applying these formulæ. One class explain that each formula applies to a nakshatra-pada of a particular type and gives the order of the Rasi-subdivisions composing the entire life represented by the nakshatra-pada and that the subsidiary portions of each Rasi-subdivision belong to the Rasis mentioned in the formula.

The astrologers of the other class say that each formula is concerned only with the mahadasa of the first naming the corresponding nakshatra-pada (i. e.—in which the formula has reference) and the letters in the formulæ only indicate the order and the proportionate lengths of the subsidiary periods of the mahadasa in question; and that a life consists of several such Rasi-mahadasas following one another in the natural order of the nakshatra-padas.

दशां दशाब्दसंगुण्यां सप्तविंशतिसंहृतां हरेत् ।
लब्धवर्षादिका ज्ञेया पर्यन्तर्दशादिनादिकाः १०७ ॥

Sloka 107. The period of antardasa of a planet in a महादशा (Mahadasa) is found out by multiplying the latter by the number of years assigned to the planet and dividing the product by the number of years constituting the entire Ayus of the Chakra. The result will consist of years, months, days &c.

अब्दा मासा वासरा नाडिकाद्या दुःस्थानेशा दुःखरोगाकराः स्युः ॥

Sloka 108. The years assigned to the lord of the main Chakra dasa should be multiplied into the years for the lord of the Rasi whereof the bhukti in the main dasa is required. The product is to be divided by the maximum life-period for the particular Navamsa to which the चक्रेश (Kalachakra) belongs. The result in the form of years, months, days and ghatikas represents the bhukti required. It is said in this connection that the lords of दुःस्थान (Dusthana) produce abundance of misery and illness.

पुनश्च तैस्तैः परमायुरब्दैर्भक्ते दशान्तिर्दशिता दशाज्ञैः ॥ १०९ ॥

Sloka 109. The antardasa-lengths (years of antaradasha) of a subperiod (bhukti or antardasa created in its turn as a whole) are to be obtained by multiplying the number of days composing the particular bhukti chosen by the number of years of the mahadasa of the planet whose antara is required, and dividing the product by the years of विंशोत्तरी of the horoscope under reference will be: (1) सिंहस्थ $\frac{10\times5}{100}$ years; (2) मेषस्थ $\frac{7\times5}{100}$ years; (3) कन्यास्थ $\frac{16\times5}{100}$ years; (4) मिथुनस्थ $\frac{9\times5}{100}$ years; (5) तुलास्थ $\frac{5\times5}{100}$ years; (6) धनुःस्थ $\frac{21\times5}{100}$ years; (7) कर्कस्थ $\frac{4\times5}{100}$ years; (8) वृश्चिकस्थ $\frac{16\times5}{100}$ years and (9) मकरस्थ $\frac{7\times5}{100}$ years. The astrologers of Southern India belong to this latter class.

सप्ताहिनाक्षमूर्क्षाणि भागं नाक्षत्राणि यान्त्यक्षगृह्यिणाद्दे ।
तेषां यमेणैव दशा प्रवक्ष्या नाक्षत्रकर्मे कवयोवदन्ति केचिद्वदुः ॥

There are a number of formulæ each composed of a number of mnemonic syllables referring to the several nakshatra-padas beginning with the 1st pada of अश्विनी and giving Rasis in a certain order. It is with reference to the order of Rasis in these formulæ that the Rasi-antardasas of which a life is to consist should be determined. The श्लोक (Vakya Rasis), seen at one school say, should be adhered to.

नक्षत्रभोग्यघटीरासुल्या पूर्वं दशा खलब्धिवर्षमिता ।
पूर्वोक्तपादक्रमतोऽन्या विंशोत्तरीयं मतमाहुरन्ये ॥

The initial rasi-dasa of a life belongs to the lord of the rasi occupy the nakshatra-pada occupied by the Moon at the time of birth, being as much of the Rasi-mahadasa as corresponds to the ghatikas that yet remain of the nakshatra-pada and the order of the mahadasas follows the natural order of the nakshatra-padas reckoned from the aforesaid one. This is the opinion, say the sages, held by the other school.

In the unfavourable positions, the bhava represented by the Rasi (occupied by the Moon) suffers damage.

Sloka 11. Men experience good when the इष्ट (Ishta) portion of a planet's influence is greatly in excess of the कष्ट (Kashta) portion. But when the latter is predominant, evil has to be mostly suffered. But when the इष्ट (Ishta) and कष्ट (Kashta) are even, the effects are of a mixed kind. In all cases the planetary influence should thus be interpreted.

In predicting the several effects of the dasa of any planet, Varahamihira says that it will not do to mention only what has been described to happen in the case of that particular planet (vide बृ. स. Sloka 23 During the Paka and bhukta of a planet, the predominant quality characterising it whether सत्त्व (Satva) रजस् (Rajas) and तमस् (Tamas) (vide Adhyaya 9, sloka 46) generally manifests itself. This manifestation forecasts or inaugurates the dasa of the planet in case it should simply occupy one of the 9 asterisms from जन्मर्क्ष (Janmarksha) But if the planet's position be in one of the 9 asterisms from the कर्मर्क्ष (Karmarksha), the manifesstation adverted to will take place some time after the dasa has set in. When the place of the planet is among the nine stars from the आदान (Adhana), the manifestation in question will not take place, or if it takes place at all, it will be only so long as the dasa lasts.

NOTE.

For सत्सु, सर्वेषु and सकल read सप्तम Adhyaya 9, Sl. 70-80.

शीर्षोदयगतः खेटः पाकादौ फलदो भवेत् ।

Sloka 24. A planet in a Sirshodaya sign yields fruit at the initial portion of the period of life influenced by him. But the same planet in a Prishtodaya sign does it at the final stage. But if he should be in a sign which has both the characteristics, he becomes fruitful at all times.

Sloka 25. The dasa of the lord of the 6th bhava may lead to wailing and lamentation. During the paka or the apahara of the lord of the 8th bhava, death may set in. When the dasa or apahara of the lord of the 7th bhava is in progress, a near relative may be lost. Without overlooking the above, the astrologer may predict prosperity in general during the apahara or bhukti of planets presiding over the asterisms termed वध(Vadha), साधक(Sadhaka), मैत्र(Maitra), परममैत्र(Parama maitra) and नैधन(Naidhana).

Notes

The terms अस, नष्ट and मरण have been explained already in Adhyaya 9, slokas 26-31. The nine stars counted from any one of the above three are termed respectively (1) अस (2) संपत् (3) विपत् (4) क्षेम (5) प्रत्यक (6) साधक (7) वध (8) मित्र and (9) अतिमित्र.

Sloka 27. When the dasa of a planet occupying a नवांश (Rakshi-Sandhi) is in progress, a person may be afflicted with sorrow and disease. When a planet has progressed no further than the 30th degree of a Rashi, its dasa may produce death.

Sloka 28. A planet occupying its depression at a birth is not competent to produce good effects, nor is another associated therewith. If the depressed planet be in conjunction with Rahu, it may do harm: as also the planet occupying a house owned by it and the one owning its depression Rasi.

Sloka 29. When any one of the several bhavas such as the Lagna is the subject of inquiry, and when a planet exceedingly inimical to the lord of the bhava under consideration occupies a house void of benefic dots, the astrologer, relying upon the unanimous declaration of eminent sages, may announce that the bhava in question will suffer annihilation during the ripening of the dasa of the inimical planet referred to.

Sloka 30. The dasa period of a planet owning a Kendra (Sadhastana) as well as of the one associated therewith leads to disease, distress and other such evils. During the dasa and apahara of a planet occupying a Kendra from the seventh (Sadhastana), sorrow and foreign travel will crop up. If two planets occupy the 6th and the 8th places in respect to each other, the astrologer may predict danger, exile or some untoward event during their paka and aparhna; but if the planets in question be benefic and friendly, the effect will be mixed.

Notes.

Apakrama and Apoklima are defined above:

आरब्धदेशे चरे अपक्रमादि स्थिरे तु वाच्यं नवमे त्रिकेन्द्रगे ।

अपक्रियोक्ते अपि लग्नवर्तिभिः क्रमात् ।
मथाग्रि केन्द्रक्रमतोऽर्थधीकृतस्मृते ॥

When the Lagna (solution of birth or of query) is a movable, immoveable or dual sign, the 9th, the 3rd and the 7th places therefrom taken in order are termed मथाग्रकेन्द्र or troublous positions. The planet occupying a मथाग्र as well as the one occupying it are to be known as मथाग्रि (Also vide Aṛkeya 2, 61-63).

Sloka 1. If the planet ripening the fortune of a person at any time be the one termed धीर (Dheerchi) (vide Adh. 5, slokas 10-13), he will become a king with an abundance of wealth, fame, patronage and learning to make him happy; if a वत्स (Vatsachi), he will have secured to him the benefits of old traditions, religious observances, the hearing of pious sermons, exceeding comfort, lands and wealth; if a मुदित (Muditha), its gifts to him will be in the form of regal favour, power and worldly happiness; if a शान्त (Santha), the effect will be exemption from ailments, happiness, prosperity, the good will of the rulers and a spirit of enterprise.

Śloka 32. When the dasa of a planet termed शक्र (Śakra) is in fruition, a person will evince a predilection for learning, education, money, religious austerities, acquisition of supernatural powers and works of charity. During the progress of the dasa of a planet called पीडित (Peedita), a person may have to apprehend danger from robbers, enemies and the rulers of the land, or lose an younger brother. Distress is all the legacy that a दीन (Deena) planet could leave. The dasa of the ill-conditioned planet termed विकल (Vikala) leads to distress and disease; that of a खल (Khala) produces mental anguish; and lastly, the planet in the भीत (Bheetha) state keeps the person under its influence in dread of adversaries.

Śloka 33. Note down these four states; viz. (1) the one occupied by the Lagna; (2) that occupied by the Moon; (3) that indicated by the name of the person concerned; and (4) that occupied by the Moon at the time of the query. Ascertain which of these is strongest. Starting with the dasa of the lord of this predominant star and following the order of the nakshatra dasas, astrologers of eminence announce the good or evil falling to the lot of the person concerned.

उत्पन्नदक्षत्रबिलग्नो वा भूधात्कर्मेशेन दशाफलानि ।
दशान्तसंस्थशुभे च सर्वे कुर्वन्ति सम्पन्फलं नराणाम् ३४

Sloka 34. If the Rasi containing the उत्पन्न (Utpanna) nakshatra (vide next sloka) be stronger than any referred to in the preceding sloka, it is quite possible that the person about whom divination is to be made, may get the fruits of all the dasas of his life calculated from the Utpanna nakshatra as the starting point. It is to be understood as a general rule that all planets have a tendency to work evil at the end of their several dasas.

Sloka 35. Ascertain the 5th, the 5th as well as the 5th star from जन्मर्क्ष (Janmarksha), i. e. the star occupied by the Moon at the time of a person's birth. Cycles of dasas are calculated from every one of these as the starting point. The dasa counted from the 5th is called उत्पन्न (Utpanna); that from the 8th, धान (Adhana); that from the 4th, क्षेम (Kshema). If the dasas in these cycles have their ends tallying with each other or with the end of the dasa taken in the same order from जन्मर्क्ष (Janmarkshe), i. e. giving the same number of years, months, etc., it is a sign that the life of the person concerned is to end with the dasa. In the case of people endowed with short, long and medium lives, the decease will happen at the close of the 3rd, the 7th and the 5th Rasi respectively.

[Note 36. If the birth of a person be during day time, his exit from the world is to be thus determined: Add the figures for the Sun and Saturn, and find out the asterism and the portion thereof indicated by this total. In the नक्षत्र (nakshatra) of this asterism, find out which period corresponds to the particular portion of the star already found. The death of the person concerned will occur at this point of time. If the birth be during night, add the figures for the Moon and Rahu; ascertain as before the particular period of the antadasa corresponding to the portion of the asterism indicated by the total. This will give the time of exit (Niryana).

[Note 37. Ascertain the asterism occupied by Mandi at the time of a person's birth. The dasa of Gulika is reckoned from this star. The lords of the Rasi and the Navamsa occupied by Gulika as well as the preceding sloka. सप्त (Saptarkha) is the 6th Rasi from the place occupied by the Karaka or its 7th, whichever of these is found to be stronger. त्रिकर्ण means the अर्क and its trinagular signs.

Some dasas are helpful to find the Navamsa (Navamsa) of any particular relative signified by the karaka under consideration.

चक्रात्कस्थितगृहगेषु सर्वभेषु
स्वक्षप्रणादलवदसरसंयुतेषु ।
वीर्यान्वितेषु शुभदृष्टियुतेषु चौक्ष्यं

Sloka 39. Should the signs representing the Rasi and other Vargas (Hora, Drekkana, Saptamsa, etc.,) occupied by the Karaka under consideration happen to be strong either by the association of, or aspect by, benefics, one may predict good results at the year signified by the number of years allotted to the lord of the respective sign representing the Varga (according to the Udu dasa system) increased by 6. But if the sign happens to be either the debilitation or inimical house of the karaka planet, or be also occupied or aspected by a malefic planet, one has to divine only evil during the said years.

NOTES.

The above passage is only tentative. "चक्रात्कस्थितगृहगेषु" has been taken to mean as "with 6 years added." As it is not explicit as to the what number of years should be added, it is interpreted as the years according to the Udu dasa system allotted to the lords of the several Vargas occupied by the karaka in question.

Sloka 40. If at a birth, the planet owning the asterism or the Navamsa occupied by the Moon should aspect the latter or be in conjunction with it, the Kalachakra dasas of these planets will be fraught with the special effects to be mentioned. Disease crops up when the देह (Deha) of the dasa in question is associated with an evil planet; and diseases when such a planet occupies the जीव (Jeeva). If both the देह (Deha) and जीव (Jeeva) be occupied by malefic planets, and the evil influence thus become overpoweringly strong, death will follow as a consequence.

Sloka 41. If a malefic planet occupy the Lagna, astrologers say that during the progress of its dasa, there will be much distress and disease, loss of wealth, and risk from rulers and foes, when the apahara belongs to a malefic planet. The effect will be wholly mixed in the apahara of a benefic planet.

Sloka 45. When a malefic planet occupies the 2nd bhava, the person concerned will have to suffer during the antardasa of that planet through the ill-will of the ruler of the land, loss of honor, loss of wealth, imprisonment, loss of high status among men, and may incur the hatred of his friends.

Sloka 46. If a malefic planet owning the 3rd bhava be associated with a planet also malefic, trouble will come to the person concerned through the instrumentar-lity of foes, weapons and thieves during the antardasa of malefic planets. This is not an unlikely result even when the lord of the 3rd bhava in question is associated with a benefic planet.

Sloka 49. In the dasa of the lord of the 5th bhava, when a malefic planet has its apahara, astrologers say there will be danger to be apprehended from the sovereign, or a dear son may fall ill. But during the apahara of a benefic planet, there will be accession of wealth and children, kind attentions from the rulers and kinsmen and the attaining of what is wished for.

Sloka 50. Wise astrologers say that in the dasa of the lord of the 6th bhava and in the bhukti of planets not benefic, a person has to apprehend danger from a king or from fire; he may suffer some misfortune or become liable to disease. In the dasa of the lord of the 7th bhava and in the apahara of a planet in the navamsa (Khala) sense, the person concerned may lose his wife and become a wanderer.

During the dasa of the lord of the 8th bhava and in the apahara of a malefic planet, the astrologer may predict risk from foes, loss of life, of wealth, of fame, rambling about or ejection from a place of honour. During the bhukti of a malefic planet in the dasa of the lord of the 9th bhava, the evil cropping up may be death of parents, accrual of iniquities, imprisonment and waste of wealth.

Sloka 57. Mark the planet that is inimical to the lord of a मृत्यु (Mrityu) dasa. During the bhukti, antara and sukshma dasa of this inimical planet, the time of death of the person concerned will indeed come. There need be no doubt of this when the inimical planet happens to be malefic.

Sloka 58. It is at the outset of the dasa of a malefic planet that the effect of its being in its exaltation or other varga will appear. Its influence over the bhava and the like that it presides over will be felt in the middle of the dasa; while the aspect upon it bears fruit towards the conclusion. This holds good, say the astrologers, in the case of all malefic planets.
